Report Name : Odisha Film on Festival

Report Description :

The Odia short film, Ghubukudu, which is based on the struggle for survival of traditional stunt artistes, has been officially selected in two international film festivals is watched by students in college campus.

“The film shows how a family, which survives on this art form, suffers in poverty, while no one comes forward to help them in their time of need. These artistes live in abject poverty despite being so talented. The music and songs have the real feel — the way the performers sing and appeal to people to pay them by narrating their own pain,”

The film features Pabitra Kumar Dandasena, Rejina Behera and Srijit Shubhankar Raiguru playing the roles of the Ghubukudu artiste and family members.
