On the 31st of October, in celebration of National Unity Day, the Ek Bharat Shrestha Bharat Committee organized a remarkable event known as the Unity Sports Fest. This event honored the birth anniversary of Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel, the revered Iron Man of India. The festivity featured engaging activities such as Kho-Kho and Team Tic Tac Toe, meticulously designed to foster teamwork and unity among the participants.

In the spirited game of Kho-Kho, four teams fervently competed, chasing each other in a display of intense athleticism. Ultimately, the MB team emerged victorious, showcasing their agility and strategic prowess. Meanwhile, Team Tic Tac Toe brought together 24 players divided into 12 teams. In the competitive atmosphere, Devansh Mathur and Rajat Agarwal skillfully won the game, demonstrating their dexterity in the art of bottle flipping.

The Unity Sports Fest served as a platform for students to showcase their sporting abilities and imbibe essential values of teamwork and unity. Participants engaged in friendly rivalry, each team striving to outmaneuver the other in Kho-Kho and perfect the bottle flip technique in Team Tic Tac Toe. The festivity resonated with the spirit of unity, encouraging students to collaborate, support one another, and work cohesively towards a common goal.

This event attracted a diverse array of students, all eager to partake in the competitions and learn valuable lessons about unity and team-building exercises. The objective behind the Unity Sports Fest was clear: to instill the significance of teamwork and unity among the students. By commemorating the birth anniversary of Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel, the event paid homage to his legacy, reminding everyone of the vital role unity plays in the progress and prosperity of any community. Overall, the Unity Sports Fest proved to be a resounding success, leaving a lasting impression on all participants, and fostering a sense of camaraderie and togetherness among the attendees.
