

EBSB NITC Makar Sankranti Celebrations

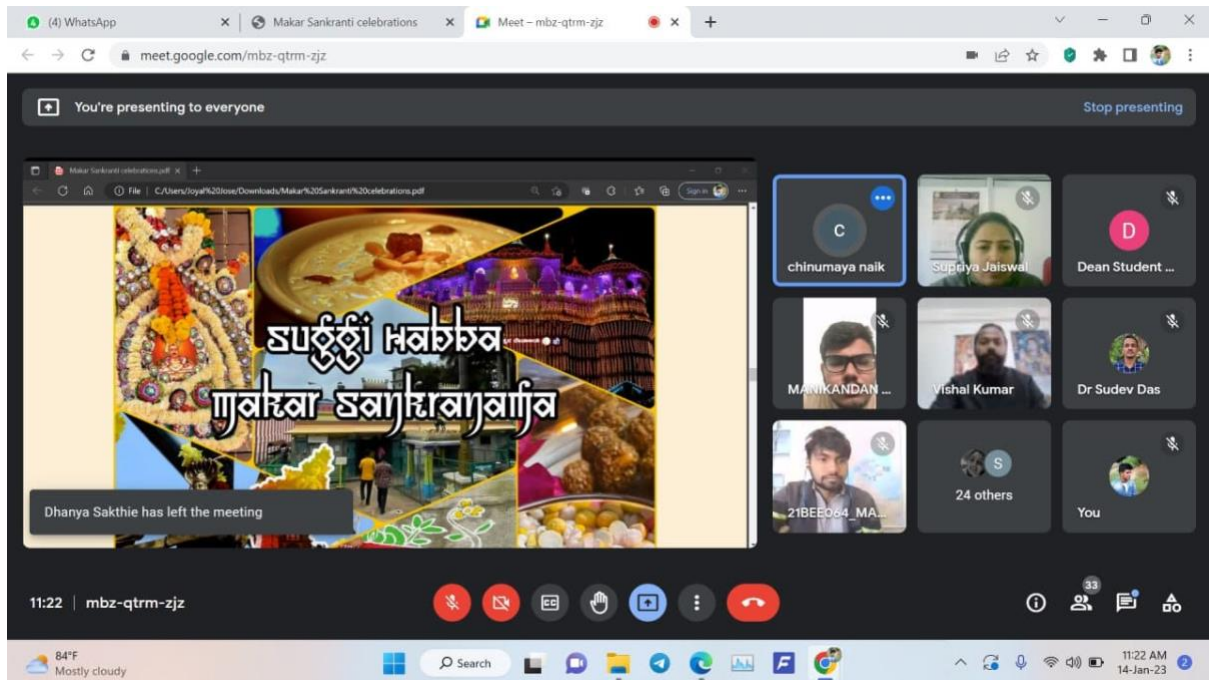

The Ek Bharat Shresth Bharat clubs of NIT Calicut and NIT Hamirpur jointly organised the first event of this new year, an online webinar on Makar Sankranti, dated 14th January, from 11 am. The event was celebrated with great zeal and enthusiasm. The webinar was held through online mode via Google Meet.

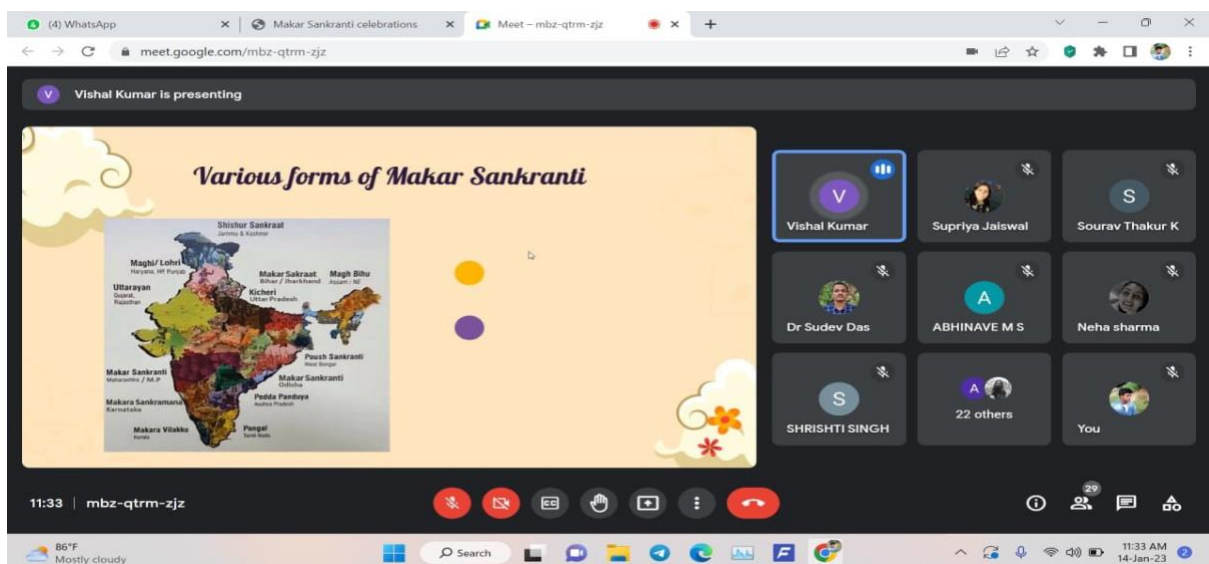

The webinar was inaugurated with welcome speeches from the Nodal Officer of EBSB wing, NIT Hamirpur, Dr. Supriya Jaiswal, followed by the Dean (Student Welfares), Dr. Pardeep Kumar, and the inaugural session was concluded by Dr. Sudev Das, Nodal Officer of EBSB wing, NIT Calicut.

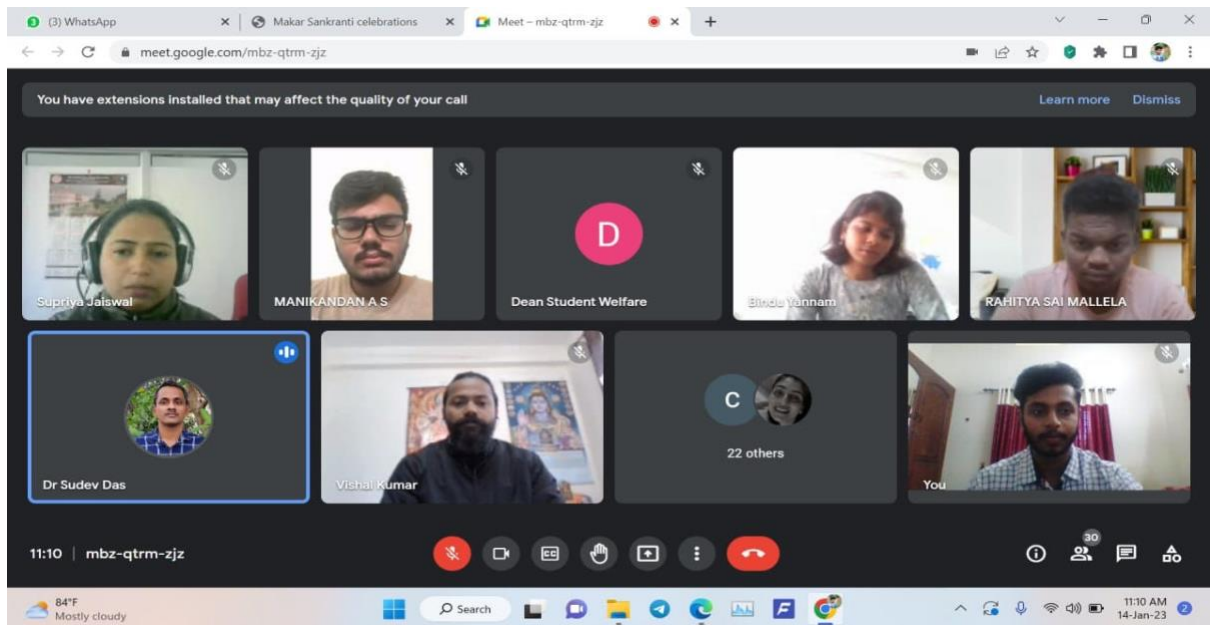

After the speeches from the respected dignitaries, the EBSB members of NIT Calicut presented about Makar Sankranti celebrations in the various South Indian states, taking various forms such as Makara Vilakku in Kerala, Pongal in Tamil Nadu, Bhogi in Karnataka.

This was followed by the presentation from EBSB members of NIT Hamirpur on the Makar Sankranti celebrations in the Northern states of India, namely Lohri, and about the history and importance of Makar Sankranti.

The event was successfully concluded with vote of thanks speeches from the club secretaries of NIT Calicut and NIT Hamirpur, Mr. Jyochith P Anil and Mr. Vishal respectively.