

JAWAHAR NADOVAYA VIDYALAYA NORTH AND MIDDLE ANDAMAN

ONE PLEDGE TOWARDS EK BHARAT SHRESHTA BHARAT

In accordance to the directions of government of India to encourage EBSB (Ek Bharat Shreshta Bharat) among the students, community of Jawahar Navodaya Vidyalaya, North and Middle Andaman, Andaman and Nicobar Islands has framed programmes giving due consideration to the guidelines issued by the Navodaya Vidyalaya Samiti.

JNV Panchawati is an unique institution differently from the other JNV's in its nature of bonding of students of different languages and regions, which cannot be seen in any other JNV's. Andaman and Nicobar Islands is also a state composing of people of different regions and languages. In true sense all the states and UT's native people are either settled or staying permanently in these islands and promoting integration with mutual co-operation and good understanding. JNV North and Middle Andaman is also of the same nature having different lingual and regional students under one shelter without any boundaries or difference.

The directives of the government and Samiti were taken in true letter and spirit to implement in the Vidyalaya by forming different groups of students. Different activities such as Painting, essay writing, dance, drama, skit, mime, quiz, debate etc were being organised to promote Ek Bharat Shreshta Bharat inside and outside the campus. The students have presented display of different region folk dances highlighting the state culture on everyday basis immediately after the assembly for our adoption, adjustment and knowledge of students. Among the different dances Punjab (bhangra), Rajasthani (ghoomar), Chotanagpuri, folk dances from Tamil nadu, Kerala (nadodiritham, thiruvaathira), Bihu (Assam), RabindroSangeet are the major folk and community dances displayed.

The students of other schools are also invited to witness the multicultural presentation focusing upon Ek Bharat Shreshhta Bharat. Not only within the campus, the students took the programme out of the campus and presented such cultural fusion and carnival in Rangat, Bakultala and Kadamtala.

Among the concepts and features of JNV migration policy is considered to be a unique feature. The students of JNV North and Middle Andaman are being migrated to JNV Pondicherry and vice versa, under the migration policy to exchange cultural bonding and promote integration. The students of JNV North and Middle Andaman took part in the Pongal celebrations and presented a variety of cultural programmes by displaying origin and cultural heritage of Tamil Nadu, Pondicherry and Andaman and Nicobar Island's primitive people dance and cultural myths and epics.

The students also went with messages of Ek Bharat Shreshhta Bharat in the form of art and culture, skit and theatre. Their presentation were widely accepted and appreciated by one and all and felicitated with awards and honours. The students stood first in all the competitions organised in different locations by different authorities. The videos and the photos of the display are uploaded for information and suggestions from all well wishers and stake holders

In the recent visit of Ms.Kaneez Fatima Joint Commissioner NVS Noida has acknowledged the best creation of students and staff in promoting Ek Bharat Shreshta Bharat in institution and out of the institution for community awareness. She appreciated the students, staff and school administration for their efforts towards inculcating the students with value education and significance of integration. She has also witnessed the spirit of the student and staff in national interest and assurance of their contribution in nation building.

The school has drawn yearly plan of EK Bharat Shreshta Bharat for widely promotion among community and students of different parts of islands and schools of the district with the help of parents, PRI's and stake holders.
