

EBSB from JNV PALAIR, KHAMMAM DT., TELANGANA STATE

(PERFORMING ART)

1. Event Name : Lambadi Dance
2. Venue : M.P Hall, JNV PALAIR, KHAMMAM DT., TELANGANA
3. Date : 11 JAN 2018
4. State-Pair : TELANGANA-BIHAR
5. Brief about Event :

Lambadi Dance is the most famous traditional dance of the District Khammam. The well-known Banjaras of Khammam District are Lambadi and Koya. The Lambadi's have migrated to Telangana & A.P from Rajasthan. The Lambadi tribe is very predominant in Khammam District. Lambadis have a different culture, community celebrations in vogue. They are hardworking and sincere. They depend on forests and odd jobs for their living. Work is equally shared between husband and wife in Lambadi Thandas. They sing and dance and reflect their culture in their dance. Women wear anklets to their feet while dancing. Their costumes also reflect their mirror and lehenga work which they stitch by themselves. The Blouse and lehenga will have rich colors of Red & green. The Balias (Bangles), nose ring and waist ring, long chains of rupee coins reflect their tradition and culture.

The song and dance are done rhythmically and they happily sing praising their culture and way of living. They sing and take pledge to safe guard themselves from the other gender. They integrate all regions and vow to be in harmony with everyone.

6. Report of the Event :

As a part of cultural exchange the local folk-dance titled "Lambadi Dance" has been introduced to the local as well as Migration students on 28th Nov 2017. After a thorough practice has been given to the students of JNV Kharaunadih, Muzaffarpur Dt., Bihar along with the local students of JNV Palair, Khammam Dt., Telangana the Dance Performance has been given in presence of invitees, parents and children on 11th JAN 2018. All had enjoyed the programme and responded with a great applause. Shri M.Rajeswara Rao, Music Teacher has taken up the event and trained the students successfully.

We extend our gratitude to Navodaya Vidyalaya Samiti for EBSB flagship Programme.

(Dr.Pati Surender)
PRINCIPAL

JAWAHAR NAVODAYA VIDYALAYA, PALAIR, KHAMMAM DISTRICT (TS)

A BRIEF REPORT ON CONDUCTING OF EBSB ACTIVITIES UNDER

(PERFORMING ARTS)

Jawahar Navodaya Vidyalaya, Palair, Khammam extends its gratitude to the Deputy Commissioner for the EBSB Flagship programme.

Jawahar Navodaya Vidyalaya, Khammam has motivated the students for National Integration. As part of cultural exchange the local folklore dance titled “ Lambada Dance” has been introduced to the local as well as Migration students on 28th November,2017. A month long thorough practice was given to students of JNV, Muzaffarpur, Bihar along with local students of JNV, Khammam. It was presented on 11th January, 2018 under the flagship of EBSB.

Lambada Dance is the most famous traditional dance of the District Khammam. The well known Banjaras of Khammam District are Lambadas and Koyas. The Lambadas have migrated to Telangana & A.P from Rajasthan. The Lambada tribe is very predominant in Khammam District. Lambadas have a different culture, community celebrations were in vogue. Handworking and sincere they depend on forests and odd jobs for a living. Work is equally shared between husband and wife in Lambada thandas. They sing and dance and reflect their culture in their dance. Women wear anklets to their feet while dancing. Their costumes also reflect their mirror and lehenga work which they stitch by themselves. The Blouse and lehenga will have rich colours of Red & green. The Balias(Bangles), nose ring and waist ring, long chains of rupee coins reflect their tradition and culture.

The song and dance is done rhythmically and they happily sing praising their culture and way of living. They sing and take pledge to safe guard themselves from the other gender. They integrate all regions and vow to be in harmony with everyone.

Shri M.Rajeshwar Rao, Music Teacher has been training the students on Peforming Art and incorporating values on culture & heritage of our state Telangana our nation.

All the children witnessed the programme and enjoyed the presentation.

We extend our gratitude to Navodaya Vidyalaya Samiti for EBSB Programme.

(Dr.Pati Surender)

PRINCIPAL.

