5. Brief about event:

Rajasthan is India’s largest state by area. It is located on the north western side of India. The Great Indian Desert, i.e. Thar desert is in Rajasthan bordering with the Pakistani provinces of Punjab to the north west and Sindh to the west.

Rajasthan is very rich in heritage, Art and Culture. Manipur is a small Indian state in the North-East of India bordering Myanmar. JNV, Senapati-II, Kangpokpi District has migration linkage with Kota District of Rajasthan.

This Rajasthani Lok Geet was performed by students of JNV, Kangpokpi, Senapati-II on 24.02.2018 as a part of “ Ek Bharat Shrestha Bharat” to fulfill the objective of the programme.

6. Report of the event:-

As a part of “Ek Bharat Shreshtha Bharat” programme from 31/10/2017 to 31/10/2018, our Vidyalaya is also conducting the programme. Rajasthani Lok Geet is performed in JNV Senapati-II by the girl students on 24.02.2018. Before the performance, Principal briefed about the objectives of “Ek Bharat Shreshtha Bharat” a Flagship programme of MHRD, Govt. of India. Our Vidyalaya is functioning in temporary site and migration linkage is non-functional till now. Therefore, our own girl students are performing the Lok Geet under the guidance of Music teacher and Principal. Our Vidyalaya will continuously conduct other activities in order to achieve the objectives of this very important programme.

Thank You.
