5. Brief about Event:

India is a unique nation, whose fabric has been woven by diverse linguistic, cultural and religious threads, held together into a composite national identity by a rich history of cultural evolution, coupled with a rousing freedom struggle that was built around the tenets of non-violence and justice. The spirit of mutual understanding amidst a shared history has enabled a special unity in diversity, which stands out as a tall flame of nationhood that needs to be nourished and cherished into the future.

In this war-torn world music is one of the few things that bridges cultures and becomes a medium of communication. Created by man and often attributed to the divine, everyone in the world understands the language of music. Rabindranath Tagore once said, "Music fills the infinite between two souls." It's a powerful medium that touches people's heart and transports them to a world where one lets go of all inhibitions. Music tells us stories of people, emotions and cultures and at times makes us feel in a way that we didn't know was possible. India, a culturally diverse country, is known for its wide range of folk music. The tradition of folk songs has a history that both goes way back in time and also continues to evolve. Some of them have come out of the rural areas and have extended to the major cities, and has become an essential part of every Indian's life as sources of entertainment, religious and cultural expression.
