

Ek Bharat Shershta Bharat

1. Event name : Exchange of Agricultural practices
2. Venue: Danayakanapura village (Nearby Vidyalaya)
3. Date: 21st November 2017
4. State-Pair: Karnataka and Uttarkhand
5. Brief about event :

We have taken 10 migrated students Uttarkhand and 10 local students to the field in the nearby village Danayakanapura. They saw the cultivation of Ragi, Sugarcane and Coconut crops as well as manuring of the crops. The students have interacted with the cultivators about the local way of growing sugarcane and exchanged their ideas of growing sugarcane in Uttarkhand. Ragi crop is a new one for them. The students have got a practical knowledge about the local agricultural practices.

6. Report of the event :

A team of teachers and students visited the agricultural fields of Danayakanapura nearby village. Sh. V Nagarajaiah PGT History, Sh. V V Chitragar TGT Art and Varalakshmi Matron escorted 20 students comprised of boys and girls (10 Migrates and 10 Local) to the village on 21/11/2017. They left the Vidyalaya 10.30 AM and reached the village at 11 AM. they have interacted with different farmers growing Ragi, Sugarcane and Coconut crops. They witnessed the cultivation of Ragi, Sugarcane and Coconut crops as well as manuring of the crops. The students have interacted with the cultivators about the local way of growing sugarcane and exchanged their ideas of growing sugarcane in Uttarkhand. Ragi crop is a new one for them. The students have got a practical knowledge about the local agricultural practices. The team reported back to the Vidyalaya at 1.30 PM