Tech Fest

- On 10 March 2020, we conducted Tech Fest in our college. Students from different departments have participated in poster presentations. Also, students have done some worker models as well. Instill a desire for technical expertise, rational thinking, and logical thought process in students.