During lockdowns the following posters have been created by our students for conveying good messages to people about deadly coronavirus.

Ishika Budhiraja
IIT Indore
The national lockdown to combat the outbreak of the menacing coronavirus has deeply affected supplies. An important medium is information/news presentation which is unbiased, correct and sincerely collated from the entire country which is in isolation.

A trustworthy name in the midst of troubled times.

IITI (Indian Institute of Technology Indore) and Free Press are elated to present the digital version of Free Press edition to your inbox. Read Free Press news and analysis of the outbreak of this deadly virus, the crisis and beyond at....
