5. Report description
The COVID-19 pandemic has the entire world in lockdown, which has disrupted global economy. The Department of Commerce had addressed a vital issue faced by the common man by organising a webinar to make aware the participants, of the various investment avenues which are protected by Government and the tough decisions needed to be taken during this tough time. The webinar was organised for all stakeholders of WCC and academicians, freelancers, and self-employed all over the country.

6. Report
Mr. Glenn Roger Carr, Founder & Director, Finmark Trainers Pvt Ltd, was the resource person for the session who presented insightful thought on how the participants can make better financial decisions during and post COVID. The major take away from the online session include what financial decisions to be taken, how to invest with caution by following 3 R's i.e., reliable, realistic, review. The webinar served to be highly useful and beneficial to our participants especially during crisis as such, through a practical and a valuable session. 165 participants from 63 colleges across the country were benefitted from the webinar.

Dr. Linet Christilda Gnanalily Associate Professor in the Department of Commerce was the coordinator of the webinar.
