E-Quiz on Everyday Economic Jargon

Organised by the Department of Corporate Economics

Dates : 19-21st of May 2020

Participants : Faculty, students and Industry People

No of participants : 498

There were 498 (so almost 500) responses for the quiz. Most of them (a little less than 92%) were students. The rest were faculty and industry employees, in almost equal ratio. Students from various colleges in TN participated. One from IIT Madras, two from IIMs (Ahmedabad and Bangalore) and quite a few from a college in Karnal (Haryana) participated. There were a few participants from a Pune college and a Kolkata college too.
