The Agenda of this program is to teach the safety measures to be taken during sports. The targeted beneficiaries are the students and staffs from Physical Education Department and some other representatives.

Resource person, A sports Doctor from Apollo hospitals engaged the day, with his team.

It's like an orientation program for the gathering, on safety measures to be followed.