Mental health to be given thrust in schools, colleges, says official

Chubs planned to create awareness

The Minister for Health & Family Welfare, Dr. Leelavathi, has said that there is a need to include mental health education in schools and colleges. Speaking at the launch of the ‘Chubs’ project in Coimbatore on Monday, Dr. Leelavathi said that the mental health of young people is a matter of concern. She said that the project was aimed at creating awareness about mental health and its importance.

Formation of the clubs will be done in all government and aided schools where the students will be trained to identify and refer cases of mental health issues. The clubs will also train the students to create awareness about mental health. The minister also said that the government was working on a comprehensive mental health policy to address the issues of mental health in the country.
