The Statehood Day is observed on 21st January every year to commemorate it as a day when the union territory of Tripura finally attained statehood on January 21. Also Kokborok Day is observed on 19th January every year to commemorate its initial recognition as an official language in 1979. This year these two important days were celebrated successfully in the college on 21st January 2020 and organised by the Department of Kokborok. The programme commenced at 11 am with the lighting of the inaugural candle by the invited keynote speaker, Mr Nanda Kr Debbarma and the other dignitaries. Thereafter, the opening song presented by the students that was followed by the welcome address delivered by Mrs. Patriot Debbarma, Hod in charge of the Dept of Kokborok. Dr Samir Kr Diabagh, A/P and Secy to the Teachers’ Council also addressed the gathering regarding the importance of both two days. Mr Nanda Kr Debbarma, an eminent Kokborok writer and keynote speaker of the event enlightened the gathering regarding the origin and commencement of the day tracing its development from various movements. He spoke at length on various issues regarding Kokborok language and literature. In her presidential speech, Dr Dipannita Chakraborty, Principal of the college expressed her valuable insights regarding the relevance of both days and also applauded the efforts of the faculty of department of Kokborok for organising such a beautiful programme. This was followed by a beautiful cultural extravaganza by the students and the programme came to a close at 2pm with the vote of thanks proposed by Mr Mani Debbarma, guest faculty of Kokborok department. All the participants were also provided with a taste of Borok traditional delicacy. The programme was made successful by the full participation of all the teaching, non teaching faculty and more than 300 students.