Executive Summary:

Spread over 511394.4Sq.ft, the well maintained campus with all safety and security measures, Shailabala Women’s (Autonomous) College, Affiliating University: Rama Devi University, Bhubaneswar, Odisha, is an old heritage and one of the foremost Government institutions established in the year 1913 to cater to the educational needs of girls including tribals. The college is one of the oldest colleges for women in the country and the oldest in the state of Odisha. Shailabala Women’s (Autonomous) College, Cuttack is named after Late Ms. Shailabala Das (25.03.1875 – 31.03.1968), daughter of legendary Utkal Gourav Madhusudan Das. Since its inception, it is the only college in Odisha which was visited twice by the Father of the Nation, Mahatma Gandhi and First Prime Minister of Independent India Sj. Jawaharlal Nehru. Its cherished vision has been upliftment of women’s education and empowerment and to extend the frontiers of all fields of knowledge at the global level and seek their relevance to local needs in pursuance of the mission of improving the economic, civic and environmental conditions. of the region. An equitable social order and a liberal humanist culture have been the professed goals of the college. At present, it imparts education at the higher secondary, under graduate, post graduate and M. Phil levels attracting students from different parts of Odisha and the neighbouring states. It imparts specialized teaching in 23 disciplines across Science, Humanities and Social Sciences. As on date the college offers Post Graduation courses in 12 disciplines and M.Phil courses in 10 disciplines and two self-financing courses, B.Ed and Computer Science. The college has a well maintained gymnasium and very good sports facilities which has helped its students to perform very well in sports related activities at National and International level. The training in self-defence is a commendable feature. The Alumini association is active and has many well known public figures. Not only has the college shaped the students intellectually, but has also groomed them as responsible and sensitive young citizens who care for the under privileged and render services for community development. This learning centre aims at achieving new heights and paves the path towards a scintillating future.
