Report

On 12th July 2020 a webinar was conducted for the members of Consumer club on Right to Information Act. Mr. Vijay Anand, Co-founder and former President of the Fifth Pillar of Democracy, a non-profit organisation in Chennai, addressed the students. He explained the purpose of passing the Act and the information that could be obtained from the government organisations. He explained the procedure for applying under the Act, fee payable, mode of payment, RTI personnel, type of information that can be accessed and the judiciary to be sought when satisfactory explanation is not rendered to the applicant. After the lucid explanation given by the resource person members were allowed to clarify their doubts regarding the Act. The session came to a close with a formal thank you note.
