Spreading of Covid-19 becomes more all over the world, to create awareness among the rural people our college reach the village people through our extension program RESCAPES and explain the causes, symptoms, effects and preventive measures for covid-19. The awareness campaign was conducted at No-94 Kariyamanikam village, Dr. Yogaiswari., Homeopathy Specialist, from the Primary Health Centre No.94-Kariyamanikam village was the resource person. She explained how this Covid virus spread among the human beings, and also she explained the importance of social distance, and the need of wearing masks, and personal hygiene. Through our college pamphlets were distribution to the village people which contains the details about the Covid virus and the preventive measures.