Later we were taken to the Auditorium where cultural programs are going on. The hosts, anchor and artists exhibited high levels of energy. Students enjoyed Punjabi songs, acts and music. A performance on 'recognize the rights of 3rd Gender people and respect them' touched the hearts of many of us. Here we came across a Full length Punjabi dance performance. Dancers performed with full energy carrying heavy dressing and music instruments.

EK BHARAT SHRESHTHA BHARAT CELL

In the evening a Jamming session was conducted in front of Block No. 32. Our students interacted with LPU students, volunteers and enjoyed dancing.

We reached our accommodation with lots of joys and memories, had our food and took rest. Everyday before and at the end of each session, we did the head count to ensure 'all the students are present and safe'.

Our third day i.e. 06-08-2022 began with variety of foods in breakfast. The schedule for the day was so hectic. We reached Department of Hotel Management. Head of the department, in department conference hall, gave a beautiful presentation on 'Punjabi cuisine'. Later students were taken to kitchens/ cooking laboratories. Here, students prepared 'Salad', 'Dal Makhani', 'Panner Butter Masala', 'Papad the chat', 'Lassi', 'Vegetarian Pulav', different types of rotis-tandoor, naan, 'Punjabi Choormai', 'Baingan Bharta' in the presence of experts. The same delicious foods were served to students.

EK BHARAT SHRESHTHA BHARAT CELL

In the post lunch session, we visited Fashion Technology block. Head of the Department presented the varieties of Punjabi dresses that are worn during various occasions by Punjabis - Tamba and Kurtha, Suthan, Salwar Kameez, Ghagra. Students were attracted to 'Phulkari art sarees and dupattas'. This handicraft seems beautiful, involved lot of thread work, needs lot of attention. But, all the color threads and work is visible in the front side of the garment only. Students showed interest on the 'Jutis'.

Once again, we went to Lakshmi Mittal Auditorium where Cultural Exchange Program was planned. Here, LPU provided us an opportunity to showcase the culture of Andhra Pradesh and Punjab. Students of various parts of the country sitting in the Auditorium experienced the rich classical performances from paired states. Andhra Pradesh students performed 'Kuchipudi – Jathiswaralu' classical dance performances. Tyagaraja keerthana was sung by Andhra Pradesh participants. School student performed 'Yogasanas'. Punjabi students performed 'Bhangra Dance' and 'Punjabi folk dance'.

Shri. Rajesh Bali, Officer, Ministry of Information and Broadcasting, Jalandhar also enjoyed the performances. In his message, Shri. On the occasion of ‘Har Ghar Tiranga’, participants and dignitaries held ‘Flags’ in their hands. Some flags were also distributed to students.

Male students of Andhra Pradesh along with Nodal Officer, attended the cultural program in traditional shirt and lungi. They showcased traditional Tuluugu attire on the stage to Punjabi students.

Later we were taken to PVR Cinema, Jalandar to watch the Punjabi movie, “Challa Mudke Nahi Aaya”. The film showcased the 1900s Punjabi housing, people, society and etc. Though we could not understand the dialogues, we enjoyed the story of the film. We understood Punjabi villages in 1900s, how Punjabis reached Canada in those days and their hardwork was in establishing own businesses in Canada.

Forth day i.e. 07-08-2022 after head count bus started from LPU to Amritsar. It was much awaited journey for all of us as we were going to see the Jalianwala Bagh, Golden Temple and Attari Border. We observed very big ‘Havelies’/ Marriage/ Function Halls between Pagwara - Jalandhar. Their decoration, richness and spread clearly indicated the importance given to marriage ceremony by Punjabis. We also saw, War memorials, Cantonments from bus.

We reached Jalianwala Bagh first. A place close to Golden Temple, said to be the culture center of Punjab before the massacre. We felt the real meaning of ‘sacrifice’, ‘patriotism’. Cruelty of Dyer is still visible in the form of ‘Gun wounds’ on the walls. Students visited ‘nook-and-corner’, saluted the ‘amar jyothi’ and ‘memorial sculpture’. Streets were so busy with commuters and traders. Phulkari work was predominantly visible on Dupattas and Sarees. ‘Juti’ of different designs, ‘Men Punjabi Kadas’, rings, ‘Lassi’ were predominantly seen in the market.

Later, we reached Golden Temple. We cleaned our feet and poured water drops on our head. Since, it was a Sunday, lakhs of people came to see the holy shrine. Our heart was filled with holiness after entering the ‘Sri Har Mandir Sahib’ complex. A cloth was given to tie on our head. Sikh Central

Museum, Amrit Sarovar was inside the vast temple complex. Locals told us that because of ‘Amrit Sarovar’ the city got the name ‘Amritsar’. Sri Har Mandir Sahib means, ‘abode of almighty god’ was built by 4th Guru, Sri. Ram Das ji in 1600 A.D. We entered the ‘Guru Ka Langar’ where we took our ‘prasad/ meal’. Here we observed that, ‘people should keep both their palms together and towards the sky’, then only the temple employees will serve the ‘Roti Prasad’. People can eat any number of rotis. Dal and sweet were also served to us. All the items were delicious. Punjabi people and visitors were moving with full discipline in a ‘queue’ in the temple. The main shrine is in between the sarovar. We went to Shrine and took our Prasad (Sweet made of Suji and Jaggary) in this Gurudwara’. We saluted the Gurus. We saluted the tree under which Guru Ram Das sat and monitored the construction.

Many of us entered and worshipped in a Gurudwara for the first time. Prasad distribution system of Gurudwaras is different from other temples. Some students gave Rs. 200/- / Rs. 300/-/ Rs. 500/- in the token counters thinking that ‘more paid will get more prashad’. For each Rs. 100/- they gave a separate ‘prashad’ plate. Later we were asked to deposit the prashad in another counter. We once again thought that ‘more paid will get more prashad’. Here, the counter collected all the 2/3/5 big plates with prashad. But, the counter clerk distributed equal quantity to all of us. Later we came to know that, “in Sikh Gurudwaras, prashad is not sold. Instead, people can offer any amount of money to their satisfaction to god. Prashad will be distributed to all equally. The underlying concept we understood was ‘prashad should reach to all particularly the poor equally, i.e. in front of god, all are equal’.

After coming out, our hearts were filled with joy and respect to the almighty. The superb white marble construction, 3 – 4 floored stunned us. Fishes in the Sarovar were so large and heavy. Authorities must be praised for maintaining the Gurudwara in such a clean and neat condition. Head cloth was removed.

EK BHARAT SHRESHTHA BHARAT CELL

We visited nearby market and purchased, Kadas, Sarees, Salwar Kameez and Jutis. We drank the delicious Amrusar Lassi. Purchasing articles is a meaningful way of understanding other cultures.

Then we started towards Attari border. We could see the fencing between India and Pakistan. Green fields on both sides robed our hearts. Showers welcomed us in Attari border. After security check we sat in seats reserved for us. Thanks to LPU, CRPF and BSF authorities for making these arrangements. Girls were invited to dance to patriotic songs by BSF. Girl students enjoyed dancing. We purchased Flags and caps in respect of BSF. Parade started at around 06.00 PM.

It was a movement of no words. According to the instructions of BSF jawans, we gave slogans. We observed Indians outnumbering Pakistanis i.e huge crowd was gathered in Indian side pavillion than Pakistan side pavillion. Our heart struck for a movement, while bothe the both BSF jawans came close to each other after opening the GATEs on either side with slogans and aggressive postures. ‘Slogans like Bharat Mata Ki Jai’ were pronounced in loud voice. After the completion of the ceremony we returned towards our bus with a ‘heavy heart’. We unsertstood the sacrificises of Jawans working in the borders.

We purchased Mugs with ‘boarder march’ photos, Flags, ‘T-Shirts’, key chains to gift our peers of Andhra Pradesh.

EK BHARAT SHRESHTHA BHARAT CELL

It was felt by all that, ‘the fields and trees do not know that they are separated. They all are enjoying the same breeze’. Some one in the crowd was telling to his relatives that ‘In 1947, India was not divided. Only Punjab was divided’. We also observed that ‘many of the soldiers marching on both sides are Sikhs only’. The tall stood pavillion on Indian side has Mahatma Gandhi photo at the top. The brutality of British in separating a vast historical country was eye-witnessed by us.

In return, we stopped at ‘Haveli’ a Punjabi dhaba-restaurant. Un like other restaurants, It depicts the Punjabi village life style. There are lots of sculptures arranged in huts which gave us an idea of life in Punjabi. Particularly ‘women preparing rotis’ ‘women in village’ ‘eating together’ attracted our attention. After taking refreshments we continued our journey to LPU.

Throught the 120 KM long journey to LPU we discusse about the sacrifices made by our freedom fighters, sung songs and danced Bhangra steps for Punjabi Songs.
