

Famous Forts and Palaces to Visit in Kerala

Kerala has got a number of forts and palaces, these magnificent historical landmarks and monuments are the major tourist destinations in the state along with stunningly beautiful Landscapes, Waterfalls, backwaters and Valleys. Famous historical fort and palaces of Kerala are Anjuthengu Fort, Palakkad Fort, Padmanabhapuram Palace, Bekal Fort, Thalassery Fort, Bolghatty Palace, William Fort, Hosdurg Fort, St Thomas Fort at Tangasseri, Pallipuram Fort, East Fort, Rock-Cut Temples, Edakkal Caves, Gundert Bungalow and Ambalavayal Heritage Museum.

Kerala has had a long line of rulers and armies that have shaped the culture and architecture of the State over centuries. Many of the prominent forts and palaces still exist to this day as a reminder of a bygone era. The forts and palaces of Kerala provide a deep insight into the rich history that nurtured god's own country. From their splendid architecture, the varied colonial influences and their vast collection of antiques and artifacts, these places in Kerala demand a visit from any traveler who wishes to delve into the region's rich past. The rich historical heritage of Kerala is pretty much evident from the number of forts and palaces Kerala has. Many empires and many rulers have ruled the place and thus, Kerala has a plethora of forts & palaces. The various magnificent palaces and forts of Kerala, India that have withstood the bouts of time till today to tell the stories of Kerala's brave hearts. Today, these forts are the monuments and also the popular tourist places in Kerala. Many of the Kerala's forts are preserved and maintained by the Archaeological Survey of India.