Content	Prime Minister Narendra Modi unveiled the 'Meri Maati Mera Desh' campaign during his 103rd 'Mann Ki Baat' radio show episode on July 30. This initiative is designed to pay tribute to heroes through nationwide programs and the installation of memorial plaques, known as shilaphalakams, near Amrit Sarovars. The Prime Minister emphasized the campaign's significance as part of the ongoing Amrit Mahotsav celebrations and as a way to honour the contributions of brave individuals. The initiative's objective is to pay tribute to the courageous freedom fighters and individuals who made significant sacrifices for the nation. Mangalmai institute of Management and Technology, Greater Noida envisaged the campaign of “Meri Maati Mera Desh”- Maati ko Naman or Veero ko Vandan under the event of 'Azadi ka Amrit Mahotsav' along with UHV & EBSB Cell. "Meri Maati Mera Desh" - Maati ko Naman or Veero ko Vandan envisions a unified celebration of India's soil and valour, commemorating the nation's journey of freedom and progress. By connecting with the land and honouring our heroes, this program will instill a sense of national pride and inspire future generations to protect India's cherished heritage. Under this student along with faculty members have taken "Panch Pran" pledge taking Desh ki Mati in one hand and our proud Flag in other. We hereby pledged to make India developed and self-reliant by 2047 and strengthen unity and respect for those who protect our country by performing our duties as a citizen of the country. Also, we pledged to remove traces of colonial mindset and celebrate our heritage as we all know that India is rich in heritage and culture and government of India has acknowledged the importance of preserving the nation's timeless and cultural heritage.
