

Ek Bharat Shreshtha Bharat Joint Activity

Nirmala College Ranchi & Carmel College Goa

Webinar on

'Human Rights: Convention on the Elimination of all forms of Discrimination Against Women'

Report

8th Oct 2020

Ek Bharat Shreshtha Bharat Club (EBSB) of Carmel College Nuvem-Goa, organised a Webinar on 'Human Rights: Convention on the Elimination of all forms of Discrimination Against Women' in collaboration with the Department of Political Science of Carmel College, Nuvem Goa. This webinar was a joint EBSB activity for Nirmala College Ranchi and Carmel College Goa

The Webinar was held on 8th October 2020 from 10:15am to 11:30 am on Google meet platform and was also be streamed live on Carmel College Youtube Channel.

The Webinar commenced with a short inaugural ceremony at 10:15am, a welcome address by the Principal, Nirmala College Ranchi Dr. Sr. Jyoti, and principal of Carmel College Goa Dr. Aldina Braganza, followed with a session by Associate Professor Louise Ann Sequeira, who enlightened the young audience about human rights, especially the rights of women through the Convention on Elimination of all forms of Discrimination Against Women (CEDAW) and thus empower them to play a significant role in society. She delved into the different articles of our constitution that state the basic rights and fundamental freedom that women enjoy; the steps that can be taken by the state to make this equality de facto. She explained that the state obliged both men and women to take equal responsibility of childbirth and their upbringing. She further spoke on economic and social rights, provisions and impacts of CEDAW. She also addressed several questions posed by students from YouTube chat box.

Participants from Nirmala College Ranchi were:

1. Neha Kumari, B.Sc Sem 4, Zoology Hons spoke on role of women in Jharkhand.
2. Shiwangi Arya, B.A. Sem 3, English Hons. She spoke on future of women in Jharkhand.

Participants from Carmel College Goa were:

1. Natasha Palha- she spoke on the role of women in Goa.
2. Glynis Godinho- she spoke on her perspective of women in Goa.

The webinar was hosted by Hegel da Costa, Department of Political Science, Carmel College and was moderated by Prof. Nazrana Banu Shaikh, Department of Political Science, Carmel College Goa. Ranisha Fernandes, Coodinator, Ek Bharat Shreshtha Bharat, Carmel College of Arts, Science and Commerce for Women, Nuvem Goa, Nirmala College EBSB Coordinator - Dr. Debjani Roy, EBSB Club Coordinator – Dr. Sreerupa Roy, HODs and Faculty members and students of both the colleges were present on this occasion.

Reporting Committee
Nirmala College Ranchi