The Institute for Excellence in Higher Education, Bhopal, M.P. has organised an online quiz based on the General knowledge of the Nagaland state on 31.08.2020 to give insight and promote awareness about the paired state. As it is a digital initiative under the pandemic COVID-19 situation, the paired state-related learning study material has been shared among students through social media. There was an outstanding response from the students and they have started communicating with each other about the historical, political, social, economic, cultural and sports related activities of the paired state in their groups. As the online quiz was based on Nagaland state, it comprised the questions from almost all the domains of general knowledge. The quiz was conducted through the web portal of the institute where such an online facility is available. A total of 128 students have been participated in the quiz and e-certificates have been awarded to participants who scored 60% and above marks.
