

EK BHARAT SHRESHTHA BHARAT CAMPAIGN 2020

NIRMALA COLLEGE RANCHI

MAKE EMAIL FRIENDS ACTIVITY

23.06.2020 – 22.10.2020

REPORT

Make Email Friends' Activity between the EBSB Club members of Nirmala College & Paired Institution Carmel College Goa was conducted from 23.6.2020 - 22.10.2020 and culminated in the form of online Buddies' meet during the Online Conclave held on 22nd October 2020.

As per the discussion during 3rd EBSB Club Meeting held online on 22.6.2020, Students of Nirmala College EBSB Club were guided to make email friends from among the students of the EBSB Club of Carmel College, Goa and interact with them regularly like pen friends to build a deeper understanding and appreciation of each other's State's culture and heritage. This activity was meant to increase familiarity and friendship between the students of paired states - Jharkhand and Goa. EBSB club Students regularly forwarded a copy of the email correspondence to ebbsnirmalacollegeranchi@gmail.com for official record.

This report contains a thread of such email conversations enthusiastically carried out with consistent involvement in exciting exchange of information by the students of the two colleges during the activity.

I hope u r fine .

I got the images of rugda .It is type of mushroom. I like it .

In goa also famous wild mushroom is growing in forest only in monsoon season .It grow in month of july to september . In konkani language it is called as "olmi "or "alami" .Here it is expansive but tasty .people love to eat . Now it is band due to save nature.

To remove this it is very dangerous .it grow on 'nag' ( soil home ) called as 'roinn ' .I am attaching some images of that hope u like

Hello Mansi,

So, as you have asked me to tell you about the experiences of Goa during lockdown today I will tell you about it.

The most affected part during lockdown in Goa was tourism as it is famous for tourist destination. Goa is heaven for those in search of the sun, sand and sea. Summer is the time when you see admirers of beauty Coming to Goa and having their 'me time' , but this summer there was an uncomfortable and eerie stillness on the beaches that were usually filled with smiling faces. As per the guidelines of govt. beautiful Churches and temples were too closed which was very miserable. I personally missed watching people going for Mass in church or in temples on any auspicious day. Like I had mentioned you about the local festival San Jaoa, this year's celebration was completely different from previous years.

Goa provide jobs to thousands of migrant workers and labourers , but shut down of companies, factories, construction works made them move to their mother place which is very tragic.

My personal experience was very distressing not being able to go to my college or market or holidaying somewhere. But it's pleasure telling you that like other states Goa too is getting towards normalcy. Recently CM has reopened Goa for domestic tourist .

To give you glimpse of Goa during lockdown, here's a link I've attached. I hope you'll enjoy watching it.(•_•)

Stay safe and healthy.
Thank you!

Hello

I have seen the video you attached It was wonderful video and yet it's a hard time we have to go through this stressful situation.

I believe in Goa also you all celebrate Guru Purnima will great respect and enthusiasm. Yet today is Guru Purnima and I could not get in touch with our teachers so I wish all my teacher of my school as well as college. Moreover I celebrated it with my mom dad and my family and even the nature.

As nature taught us so many things so today I have planted one more plant in my terrace.

I would love to know how you celebrated this occasion. Hope you are doing well.

Love from Ranchi

Good evening Priya
I would love to have conversation with you. I also believe that e-mail conversation can also be easily carried out by us and also it is one of the best way to keep record for our activity.

As a friend I would like to share a very beautiful tradition Rath Yatra that were going to be held in Ranchi but due to current situation of COVID-19 it had been cancelled. And you will be shocked to know that after this ritual started in 1691, it is first time in 330yrs that it is not going to happen. But then also people visited Jagannathpur temple one of the famous temple of Ranchi, worship god and also and cooperated to maintain social distancing. Even in almost every house food like: stuff dal-puri, khir, aloo gobi masala was made and doesn't let their spirit goes down. Our cheif minister Mr. Hemant Soren also visited to temple and prayed for betterment and good health of people. Even in my house we worship, made special food and welcome lord Jagannath full heartedly. So basically, it was a different from other years but people celebrated in their own way.

Telling my story I am excited to here yours too. Looking forward to it
Thank you and love from Ranchi.

Hello Priya,

I know you are quite busy with you work and also your health is not good.I wish you get well soon and we can make a wonderful conversation.

Today, I especially want to tell you about the Santhal Hool Diwas which many of us are not aware of. So basically Santhal Hool Diwas the anniversary of the Santhal revolt against British rule. In our Indian history it is considered,the 1857 revolt as the first uprising against the British, but researching tribal history would reveal that Tilka Manjhi had led a rebellion against the British way back in 1771. The major cause of this revolt was tax and exploitation of the tribes in Jharkhand. The rebellion was led by the four Murmu Brothers - Sidhu, kanhu, Chand and Bhairav.Many tribes put mala over Sidho kanho ka statue and also do puja for their ancestors sacrifices.

Hope to learn more festival from your side and know interesting facts

Get well soon

Love and regard from Ranchi

Hey!Dear

Thank you so much for your concern,I'm totally fine now and I hope you and your family too are keeping well.

I really apologize for the late reply to your mail, have been busy for few days. Mentioning your last two mails I must say that you have totally surprised me with your poetic skills and it was a very new experience to me knowing one's state through poem. I really appreciate that.

You have told about Santhal Hool Diwas which was a complete new piece of information to me about history of Jharkhand, and I'm sure it will be helpful to me , obviously.

I really liked how we two strangers have bonded so well and shared and learnt so much about each other and our cultures and we see further to it.☺_☺

I promise to enlighten you too with some facts and history about Goa in my next mail.

Thank you!

Stay safe and healthy

Regards.

Hey! Mansi

I should tell you that I truly enjoyed Knowing about Ranchi and I guess will fall in love with capital before even visiting there. You have described the weather so beautifully that it has excited me:) Waterfalls, Forest, temples has always been an attraction to me. It would be pleasure visiting Ranchi and exploring the land.

As you have mentioned about weather in Ranchi it would be unfair not telling you about immensely beautiful nature of Goa. As it is rainy season here now there is lot of greenery everywhere making Goa more beautiful. I should tell you that there were times when Goa used to be empty during monsoons due to heavy downpour but that has changed now , tourist visit now to enjoy rain and greenery but unfortunately this year this too has been affected by Covid-19.

I wish you visit Goa very soon, and especially during monsoon and see that there are so many things which attracts an nature enthusiasts. The quite beaches like colva , vagator will make u feel stay here forever. Breathtaking view of waterfalls like Dudhsagar , Netravali and many more are memorizing. You can also go exploring historic forts, the view from atop these forts look more stunning then ever.

Goa is more then just late night parties and it's beaches, exploring interior of Goa on bicycle , interacting with locals , drinking fenni , seeing paddy fields, old churches are adventures which will make u visit this beautiful land again and again.

Telling u this made me feel so much connected to Goa and I'm sure u will be interested too. Do tell ur views on this. Thank you!

Love and regards from Goa:)

Hello Priya,

I would like to thank you, you have given me a totally new perspective for Goa. I really appreciate the way you describe the inner Goa. I never thought of Goa for its greenery, waterfalls and adventurous thing. It make me more interested to know about Goa. By reading the mail it became a challenge for me how to describe my state that takes your attention, so I came with an idea to describe my feelings through poem.

A short poem written my me I hope you will like it:

Aao tumhe Ranchi ki kahaniya batlaye,
Mil kr Johar kar hm sheesh jukhaye.
Tashwire bahut dekhi honghi tune,

Ab Ranchi ki gaaliyon se milwaye.

City of Waterfall hai ye kehlaya,
Dassam,Jonha,Hirni fall hai paya.

Jungle jahriyan yaha ki saan,
Mana Birsa Munda ji ko hmne bhagwan.
Prakritik sundarta mei apne bachpan bitaye,
Jagannath,Pahadi baba aur Ram Mandir ke katha sunaye.

Chote bache jaise hoke begane,
Gum aaye Science City, Fun Castle, Rock garden ek br mastane.

Kahi hawa ke jhoke dam kinare,
Kahi sunhare saveren hmhe pukare.
Phoolo ki ladi Raj Bhavan m deki,
Guru Rabindranath ji ke v dil m Tagore hill baathi.

Rajesh chauhan,Albert Ekka,Deepika Kumari,
Kitno ke name btaye,
Jinhone ke shehar ke gaurav baraye.

Nagpuri,Khortha,Kurmali bahut sara bhasaye hm h kahete
Phir v sath mil kr hai rhete.

Jagah Birsa Munda ne jaan gawaya,
Wo shehar Ranchi khelaya.

I truly wish you like this poem and please give me you view. Looking forward for more interesting fact and places abt Goa.

Love for you and your whole family♥♥♥♥.

Hello Shivani,

That's really great to know about you and your college. Just love the way you described. And it's a great pleasure that we are very good friends now.

As I told you in my next email I will tell you about my state Jharkhand.

So here I continue,

Jharkhand is the 28th state of Indian union which came to existence on 15 Nov 2000. Jharkhand shares its border with 5 states – Bihar in the north, Uttar Pradesh and Chhattisgarh in West, Odisha in the south and West Bengal in the east. Jharkhand, famously known as 'The Land of Forests' is an ultimate destination for nature lovers and wildlife enthusiasts.

Ranchi is the Capital of Jharkhand.

Most of the state lies on Chhota Nagpur Plateau which is the source of Koel, Damodar, Brahmani and Subarnrekha rivers.

Jharkhand's one of the city, Dhanbad is also known as India's coal capital.

Industrial city Ranchi is the capital and Dumka is a sub-capital city. Jamshedpur is the largest and biggest industrial city.

Jamshedpur is the first planned industrial city of East Singhbhoom district.

Jamshedpur city along with Tata Steel Plant was established in the year 1907 by Jamshetji Tata. Tata Steel Ltd which was formerly known as Tata Iron and Steel Company Ltd (TISCO) is the first private Iron and Steel company of India.

Tata Motors Ltd formerly names as Tata Engineering and Locomotive Company (TELCO) is also located in Jamshedpur.

Presently Tata Steel is the second largest Iron and Steel company of India (first is JSW Steel, the year 2016) and it was also ranked 11th Iron and Steel company of the world in the year 2013.

Bokaro Steel Plant (BSL) is another important iron and steel company located in Bokaro district and got established in the year 1964 as a Limited company. It was later merged with SAIL.

Some other important Iron and Steel companies of Jharkhand are Bihar Sponge Iron Ltd of Chandil, MECON Ltd Ranchi, Hindustan Malleable & Forgings Ltd Dhanbad, JAMIPOL (a joint venture of Tata Steel and SKW Stahl, Germany), Usha Martin Jamshedpur.

The state is rich in mineral resources such as iron ore, coal, mica, limestone, graphite, asbestos, dolomite etc. and accounts for 40 % of the total mineral resources of India.

This state is the tribal-dominated region with 28 % of people are tribal and 12 % belong to scheduled Cast. The main tribes of this state are Santhal, Oraon, Munda, Ho, Kharia, Bhumji etc. Also with, 68.6 % Hindus, 14.5 % of Muslim and about 4.5 % are Christians.

Main festivals include Karam festival which is quite popular among Oraon tribe. Other festivals include Vat Savitri and Teej.

Deoghar is the ancient city of Jharkhand known for its temples.

Baidyanath Dham which is one of twelve famous Shiva Jyotirlings is located in Deoghar district.

Besides the main Baidynath temple, there are 21 other different temples also located in the campus depicting different Hindu Gods and Goddesses.

There are much more exciting facts to share about Jharkhand , so will surely continue this in my next mail. Till then I would love to know about your state Goa . Waiting for your reply.

Your faithfully,

Hope you and your family is doing well. It will be my pleasure to know about you, your college and mainly about your state Jharkhand. I am delighted to have a friend like you. I am very keen to make myself aware about the biodiversity, culture and tradition of that state.

Carmel College of Arts, Science and Commerce for Women is nestled at the foot of the hills in the village of Nuvem, Goa. It has the distinction of being the first and only college for women in the state of Goa. The college is run by the sisters of Apostolic Carmel congregation.

The serene environment of Carmel College makes it an excellent place for study and reflection. The college has a spacious and modern building with adequate facilities such as well-equipped laboratories and library, Wi-Fi, internet, museum, botanical garden for study, games and recreation along with women's hostel in a large campus with scope for expansion.

Thank you for your patience.

I will consider myself lucky if I get to know more about your college and state through you.

Namaste 🙏

Hey I know, kept you waiting for so long 😞

How are you ? Hoping monsoons are making you happy 😊.

So today ,I am here to tell a bit about forts in Goa.

I would say the Portuguese Emperor left some amazing forts for our local tourist and national to international tourist as well to visit on a vacation 😊😊.

There are many forts ranging from the north of Goa like Chapora fort ,Reis Magos,Corjuem ,Terekhol fort etc to the south Goa like Cabo de Rama fort,Rachol, Mormugao fort etc .

So i will let you about The Mormugao fort .

The fort was built in early 17th century by the Portuguese state of India , for the defense of South Goa . The fort expands into the sea that allowed the portuguese rulers to keep the best watch on the waterways to protect the port from attacks .The maratha warriors continued to attack and this made the Portuguese to give up eventually on this fort.This protected monument is now a tourist attraction for the people.

From the above listed forts I only visited two of them that are Mormugao fort at Headland Sada and Cabo de Rama fort in Cancona.

Herewith I attach the pictures of the said fort .

Will tell you more about Goa in coming e-mails.

Stay super healthy 😊

Take care and bye.

Dear Siddhi,

Johar! 😊

I apologize for the delay. But you know what, I am excited everytime I see your mail. The facts shared by you are really very interesting and I find myself in some beauty-laden place in Goa. 😊

So, today I would provide you with a glimpse of sports in Jharkhand. Our state is known for its very rich culture and diversity, as you already know. But when it comes to sports, there is also much to talk about. You must know that Jharkhand has given many sportsperson who made the nation proud on various occasions: Asunta Lakra and Birendra Lakra. Former was the capitan of women hockey team. We all know about Deepika Kumari who won multiple medals for India in CWG 2010 in archery event and who can leave MS Dhoni out of the list. He is still the only capitan till date who have won all the ICC tournaments in the world, and one of the most successful capitans of Indian cricket team. Other than them, Madhumita Kumari and Purnima Mehto also made the nation proud in archery.

Aruna Mishra was gold medalist in world championship 2004 in boxing event. Ishan Kishan, Kirti Azad, Shaurabh Tiwary, Shabaz Nadeem have also represented Indian cricket team at international platforms.

These are some of the famous (but not all, can't describe all of them in a single email) sporting event and sportsperson from Jharkhand.

JSCA stadium in Ranchi, which is the ninth biggest stadium in the country, was established in 2011, and has been hosting the international events since 2016.

Also, you would be amazed to know that a whole gaming complex called Khelgaon (the village of sports) was constructed at Hotwar in the capital city Ranchi during the 34th National Games held in our state in the year 2011. It is a very important sport complex which provides training to people in a number of sports and conducts many events.

I will tell you more about my state in the next mail. Until then I hope for your wellness.

Stay safe and take care 😊

Bye.

Dear Siddhi

Hi! 😊

Hope you are doing great.

I received your e-mail. I am glad that the conversation is going exactly like I had thought of. It feels good to converse with someone whom you have never known before. I really hope this bond goes a long way. 😊

It's good to know that you reside near a tourist spot. Churches have always been my favourite. I surfed through the pictures of Three Kings Church. It's beautiful! Kindly do send me the photographs of the place when you visit there again, or maybe with all the decoration during Christmas. Also, festivals excite me a lot. I would be a pleasure to know more about Vasco Saptah, how people there celebrate it.

Festivals in Jharkhand are mostly nature-fests. We people worship nature. You will be amazed to know how emotionally connected people are to nature. And why just fest, you'll see a glimpse of importance of nature and people's connectivity to it in every art, literature, etc.

I am attaching some photographs of the wall paintings done on the streets. You will have an idea of how important nature is in our culture. There are 32 tribes in Jharkhand. Each one of them have their own unique culture, but the reverence of nature is central to every tribe. Even the non tribal people do care about and protect it.

I will write to you more in the next E-mail and will try to send you some real-life photos of the culture here, if I get a chance to go out.

Waiting for your reply.
Stay safe and healthy.

Good night. 😊

Dear Siddhi

Hi! 😊

Ko shem asa?

What's up? What are you doing to entertain yourself at home?

What are your hobbies and how do you like to spend your free time?

Before you ask me the same 😊, I am all ready with the answer. I read in my free time and listen to music. Infact, I'm a music-addict. 😊 I have listened to some of the Konkani songs and they were nice. Kindly, do suggest me some songs from your favourite playlist.

And yes, thanks for telling about the Sao Joao. It's amazing to know how you celebrate it. Goa is full of liveliness! 😊

Today, I am up with a Jharkhand foke lore for you. I hope you like this story. As I've already told, there are 32 tribes in Jharkhand and this story is famous in the Santhal tribe. It goes by the name, 'Ledha and the Leopard'.

So, the story goes like...

There lived a boy named Ledha in a small village. He and his friends liked to play on the hill top and shout, "Ho, leopard!" And then they would laugh out on their own joke. But, a leopard actually lived in the hills. Once, the leopard was playing with a lizard and the lizard, out of a sense of danger, bit the leopard. The leopard was enraged and tried to hurt it. The lizard then crawled up the leopard's back and stayed there. Now, the leopard was really frightened and he ran here and there for help. Just then, he spotted Ledha and his friends and ran to them for help. Other friends fled away for their lives, but Lekha could not run fast. The leopard then asked for help and Ledha chased the lizard off his back. Although, the leopard took a promise from the boy that he would not tell anyone about this incident, or else, it would carry him into the forest and eat him up. Lekha agreed.

But when he reached home, he had to tell his sister about the forest episode. The leopard who was hiding in a bush outside the house and heard it all, and carried away Ledha to the forest, after everyone had fallen asleep.

When Lekha woke up, he found himself in the middle of the forest. He was frightened, but told the leopard that he still had the lizard in his pocket. The fearful tiger ran away. Now, Ledha was safe, but he did not know the way back home. So, he cleared a small patch of land and slept there in the hollow of a tree.

In the morning, a herd of Buffalos living nearby saw the change and wanted to know who had cleared their sleeping area. They found Ledha and kept him as their servant. Ledha stayed there, cleaning the place and looking after the Buffalos.

Once, while he was bathing in the river, some of his hair came out. He wrapped up the hair in a leaf and set the packet to float on water. The packet was caught by a princess playing at some distance near the river. Now, she wanted to meet the boy whose hair it was. The king sent a crow to find him and the crow tricked Ledha into coming to the palace. The princess married Ledha and they stayed in the palace for sometime.

Meanwhile, the Buffalos grew weak. One day, Ledha went to visit them and was sad to know about their situation. He came back with his wife to live in the forest again and made a small house there. The king sent them uses of need regularly and a we come to a happy-ever-after.

This story displays the simplicity and kind hearteness of people, no matter rich or poor.

Kindly, let me know about the folklores existing there.

Here, I'm sending you the youtube link of one of my favourite Nagpuri (Jharkhandi) song.

A man calls his lady love to come visit the mango orchard, where they used to play as children.

Hope you like the song.
Will write to you more about my beautiful state in the next e-mail.

Stay safe, take care.
Good night 😊

Astha , hope you are fine and safe.

I just received your email. Went through it and was really amazed to read about how people from Jharkhand really connect to nature in a unique way. The wall paintings are beautiful loved it 😍.

So , let me tell you about Sao joao a goan festival. You might not heard about it since it is only celebrated in Goa (India).

You will be surprised to see the pictures attached here with.

The festival is celebrated every year on June 24 to remark a birthday of st. John the baptist.

The people of catholic( christian ) community usually celebrate this festival by leaping into the water bodies and wells.

The Sao Joao is celebrated when monsoon just commences and everywhere we can enjoy the green beauty ,so the people make crowns of leaves ,fruits and flowers because the St.John had never worn a fabric clothes indeed worn clothes made of leaves .

I hope you got some idea about Sao Joao .

Stay safe and healthy

Good night take care 😊 😍.

Henda ho! dear
Aav bare asa (I am fine )

I went through the link u shared to me and i enjoyed the song but couldn't understand the lyrics .

So talking about the lockdown schedule ,
I help my mom in cooking food and other household work 😊 .
I am not really a music addict i could say but I rarely listen to it.

So I just had a glance through the calendar and found out that Nagpanchmi is coming soon that too 25 of this month .
Nagpanchmi is celebrated all over goa by Hindus. During this festival we worship lord Shiva and Nag . Women from our locality get together and visit lord shiva temple ,recites mantra and offer milk to Nag . And some people also worship an idol of Nag made up of mud . Firstly, then clean the idol with water and then pour some milk on it and recites mantra.

Every year I wait eagerly for this festival to start so i can have Patolis 😊
Patoli is prepared by applying some wheat dough onto the turmeric leaf and then stuff it with mixture of jaggery and coconut and finally it is fold by pressing the edges of leaves and then putting it in Idli container to cook with the help of steam generated in it .

I hope u try this dish on Nagpanchmi and let me know how was it .

I would like to know how you people celebrate Nagpanchmi there .

Here I am sharing a link of a konkani version of Despacito song .

The lady is telling him that her love is true and not fake .

Will Share more about my state in next e-mail.

Take care 😊 .

Dear Siddhi,
Johar!(Hello) 😊

How are you doing? I hope you're all good and enjoying your days with positivity!

I apologize for the utter silence of three days. I was a bit busy with syllabus and all. It's lovely to know how you people celebrate Nagpanchmi there. Since, it's a well known festival, I felt a great sense of connectedness to you and your place. 😊 And yes, I will definitely try making the Patolis. That's the good part of life, right? Delicious food! 😊

Well, we people here celebrate Nagpanchami in almost the same way as there. People going to temples and offering milk to the Shivaling and praying with chants. The environment feels divine.

Today, I would like to tell you about Deoghar, a religious destination in Jharkhand. It is located at about a distance of 275 kilometers from the capital city, Ranchi. It is blessed with one of the 12 jyotirlingas in India. The temple here is called Baidyanath Dham.

Baidyanath Dham in Deoghar becomes the most famous during the Shraavan month of the Hindu Calendar, which is starting tomorrow itself. Millions of devotees bring holy water for the Linga in Pitchers called Kanwads, and known as Kanwariyas, to perform the holy ritual of Rudrabhishek or The Holy Bath. Call Deoghar 'the cultural capital of Jharkhand'.

Will write to you more about my beautiful state in the next email. Tell me whatever you want to, because, I can't really think of a question at the moment.

Stay safe and cheerful, dear
Take care 😊
Adeus

Hello friend 😊🤝

I hope you are safe and well there . Enjoying the pleasant weather . ☁️🌧️

I know you are surely enjoying the rains this days.

Here in, Goa at my place we had continuous downpour about a week but varying intensity.

I don't like monsoon because the climate is so dull and pale looking at it i feel sleepy 😴 and lazy 😞.

So here i am to tell you that Goa is the best known for tourist attractions mainly beaches .

The state goa is divided into two districts south and north goa . So, the Bogmalo beach is the cleanest beach in south goa . It is about 4 km away from Goa International Airport( Dabolim Airport) and 8 to 9 km away from only port city Vasco -da-gama. The beach lacks shacks but there are few permananet tourist hotels for people to stay in . One popularly known hotel is Bogmalo beach resort. The main tourist attractions are the water sports activities like para sailing and many more 🧑🏻💡.

While going to Bogmalo beach 🏖️🌊 one can visit Naval museum which is the 1st Asian naval museum located in Goa . Here one can see the different aircrafts , jets, weapons which were used by Indian navy . 🚢✈️.

I wanted to attach pictures but due to network issues i couldn't upload. So u can Google them and can have a look.

I know you might be waiting for your email reply .

Take care 🙏.

Bye bye 🙋.
