The objective of the event : Providing an opportunity to explore the understanding of "Ek Bharat Shreshtha Bharat" program among the students and promoting the initiative.

Through Google Meet, students of the Institute for Excellence in Higher Education, Bhopal, M.P. joined a live session to participate in an Online Speech Competition on 30.09.2020. The topic of the speech was "Ek Bharat-Shrestha Bharat" and the responses were really overwhelming as a total of 38 students have participated, out of the 09 students have shared their views on the theme in a very clear and interesting way. The e-certificates have been awarded to all the participants.

Earlier, the event was introduced by Mr. Garvit Bhalse with the objectives, rules and regulations. Within the allotted time limit for each participant i.e. 5- 6 minutes, the speakers like Mr. Devansh Soni, Mr. Aman Dhakad, Ms. Prateeksha Pandey, Ms. Astha Jain, Mr. Vedant Singh Thakur, Mr. Akash Patel and Mr. Sourabh Dangi who really did a commendable job and shared a lot about the theme in their speeches. Mainly, they have focused on the EBSB initiatives, its significance and in particular, the diversity of Nagaland and Manipur states, as these two states have been paired with M.P. Their clear insight helped to understand the unexplored and unknown fronts of the states. It was really an amazing experience for the participants and listeners as well because for everyone there was a lot to carry away the knowledge and respect for fellow states.

The entire event was successfully coordinated by Mr. Garvit Bhalse, a member of EBSB Club of IEHE. In the end, he also offered the vote of thanks. The faculty members and Dr. R.K. Srivastava, EBSB coordinator was also present at the event.
