Report of Celebration of Matribhasha Diwas

As per the guidelines given by Hon. State Project Director, RUSA, Maharashtra, we have celebrated 'Matribhasha Diwas' and 'EBSB Day' today on 20th Feb. 2020 at 11.30 am in the college auditorium. On this occasion, we were planned and conducted the following activities in our college.

1. Display of Books in various languages
2. A lecture on the occasion of 'Matribhasha Diwas' and 'EBSB Day' was organized
3. Presentation of Kathak Nrutya,
4. Screening of Short Film in Oriya language.

The exhibition of books on various languages such as Marathi, Hindi, English and Oriya was arranged in the 'Display Section' on First Floor of Library building of our college. Hon. Principal Dr. V. S. Shivankar inaugurated this display of books in the presence of guest Prof. Haribandhu Pradhan from Western College, Sanpada, Navi Mumbai and EBSB Coordinator Dr. V. B. Pujari. Around 600 students of the college were visited to books display.

Also, a lecture on the occasion of 'Matribhasha Diwas' and 'EBSB Day' was organized. Prof. Haribandhu Pradhan from Western College, Sanpada, Navi Mumbai was delivered a wonderful and interesting lecture in Oriya and Marathi languages. Basically, he is belonging to Odisha State.

In addition to this, we have arranged a 'Kathak Nrutya' which is one of the oldest and famous folk dances as a symbol of rich heritage of Odisha state. It was also very impressive and interesting.

Lastly, we have screened a short film in Oriya language, which was depicting a rich heritage and cultural background about the Odisha State in general. Around 200 students were benefited out of these activities.

Dr. V. B. Pujari, EBSB Coordinator presented the introductory remarks about the purpose, theme and why to celebrate 'Matribhasha Diwas' and Hon. Principal Dr. V. S. Shivankar highlighted the 'Unity in Diversity' of our Country and about the EBSB activity under RUSA Scheme of MHRD.

It was a wonderful and interesting activity conducted on the Occasion of Celebration of 'Matribhasha Diwas'.
