REPORT ON MATRIBHASHA DIWAS

JNV, Lunglei, Mizoram celebrated Matrihasha Diwas on 21st February, 2020, to promote the mother tongue and multilingualism. Regarding this celebration various programmes and activities were organized and conducted in the premises of the Vidyalaya. As the opening of the celebration, a pledge to the Constitution's Preamble in Hindi and Mizo language were read out in the morning assembly. For Hindi, it was read out by Mayan Kr. Singh, PGT-Hindi and for Mizo language by Zosangliana Khawhling, TGT-Mizo. An exhibition programme also conducted on Indian languages through display boards, posters etc. The display boards and posters depicted all the official languages of India. Further various completion programmes were conducted such as painting, essay writing, quiz, and debate. In painting total number of 31 students and 30 students in essay competition participated. Quiz competition was also conducted based on the topic on language. Students from each house participated and Arawali house was the winner. Debate competition also conducted based on the topic 'Importance of Mother Tongue' most of the talented students participated in the competition.

As continuation of this celebration, some activities were also performed by the students in different languages like folk songs, drama, and cultural show. Some girls sing folk song in Mizo language in groups. For drama it was played in Hindi languages, for cultural show, some girls' students' shows by wearing various traditional dresses of different community. From this celebration, students observed that there are various official languages in our country. They all enthusiastically participated in all the above programmes and competition. Lastly, students realized that India is a country of multilingual and unity in diversity.
