Objective: To teach students regarding language like Hindi, English and Gujarati for better communication with people from different culture.

Program has been started at 8'o clock.

In this activity, students presented a poster on important poets and authors with their work in literature of Gujarati, Hindi and English. Not only Students, who made poster learned about language but, those who attend the festival of literature, receive knowledge of it. In addition, students learn how to make presentation and deliver it in front of public effectively.

Importance of learning literature has been proven by saying that it is a great tool to approach language and culture. Furthermore, Literature is the media of teaching and learning authentic language also it may foster the development of reading, writing, speaking, listening, and critical thinking skills. Language of literature is well organized and wonderful choice of diction.

Outcome:

Numbers of students are benefited from this activity.
