Report for the month of July

Event 6:

Punjab Culture demonstration by Art & crafts (22nd - 30th July-2020)

As a part of the Ek Bharat Shreshtha Bharat program Raghavendra Institute of Pharmaceutical Education and Research (RIPER) conducted a programme to represent Punjab state culture during covid-19 period in the month of July 2020. Students of both B. Pharm and Pharm. D have participated and presented different varieties of arts and crafts to represent Punjab state culture. All the women faculty and some of our students co-ordinated to make this programme a grand success.

As a part of Ek Bharat Shrestha Bharat programme one of our student N. S. Aishwarya Bai (B. Pharm II year) designed Punjab fabric painting model.

As a part of Ek Bharat Shrestha Bharat programme one of our student G. C Manasa of IV. Pharm. D participated and presented a model of hand fan (Punjab state craft model)

As a part of Ek Bharat Shrestha Bharat programme one of our student Mr. Debaraj Roy of IV. Pharm. D participated and presented a model of Punjabi Jutti.

Jutti introduced in the middle century in Punjab as a footwear, now more common in the rest of north India, jutti is wore by both men and women, it has a flat sole and body shaped of the foot with a pointed curve in the men jutti analogous to mustach whereas women are flat.
