

NEW INDIA – A BRIEF VIEW

REPORT

MONTH – JUNE

“Innovation for the people and by the people in the direction of new India.”

The new India- a dream of the whole population, which is slowly and gradually unfolding its various colors. The idea was originally initiated by the government of India in March 2021 under the name of AZADI KA AMRIT MAHOTSAV. The concept of this movement is to celebrate and commemorate 75 years of independence and the development that led after getting independence and to showcase the growth of India in all sectors. The countdown began in March 2021 and will end on 14th August 2022 and will be celebrated in different forms by different organizations. Banarsidas Chandiwala Institute of Hotel Management and Catering Technology contributed toward spreading awareness among the students and educating them about this step taken by the government by hosting an inter-institute essay writing competition to celebrate

New India is leaning towards getting smarter in technology, but being better as a community is what is the need of the hour. We might be just a few steps away from becoming an advancing, to an advanced country because of the strategic steps our government took, one of the salient examples is the EK BHARAT SHRESTHA BHARAT which provides an opportunity to the young leaders to come together and showcase their skills and views which will further help in achieving unity among diversity

In these 75 years, India has come a long way- high literacy rate, achievements in both the medical sector and science, proposing new educational schemes for the differently abled, and much more. India has made so much progress in the field of hospitality- the way Covid-19 impacted other countries, it did not to India because of the management skills.

A great example of this was portrayed by Sikkim, Sikkim made these stringent to ensure the prevention of COVID-19 within the state. Their strategy worked in ensuring zero COVID-19 cases till 22nd May 2020. Sikkim is among those states which have taken the strictest possible measures to prevent the spread of COVID-19. Despite having a high dependency on tourism, Sikkim decided to keep its doors closed to the tourists till October 2020

Highlighting more about the progress of the new India Ms. Agrima Bhatia, one of our prestigious students who won an Inter-Institute Essay Writing Competition organized by Banarsidas Chandiwala Institute of Professional Studies, Delhi on June 19, 2022, penned down more about the journey of our progress whole together as a nation highlighting about the contribution of our partnering state Sikkim. She wrote, about Sikkim having a comparative advantage in tourism with its beautiful landscape, diverse flora and fauna, culture and traditions, and hospitable people. Other factors are its peaceful environment, political stability, high literacy rate, its green policies such as organic farming, easy accessibility, and how the tourism sector has been boosted after the merger of Sikkim and India.

Her essay won the competition due to the way she penned her opinions about the topic. In her essay, she extensively talked about Ek Bharat Shresth Bharat, make in India, and Digital initiatives taken by the Government of India. Her hard work paid rich dividends and she secured First Position in the Competition

Each of us has the instinct to rise like a flame, let's nurture that flame and make the New India we all dream of by uniting the diversity and acknowledging the contribution of each state towards making this young India a new India.
