Modak

The favorite of Lord Ganesh, Modak is a sweet dish that is favored by everyone in the state. The authentic Modak is made from grated coconut mixed with jaggery which is then filled into an outer shell made from rice flour mixed with a little bit of refined flour. During Ganesh Chaturthi celebrations, you can find Modak in different flavors like chocolate, pista, and kesar, to name some.

Zunka Bhakri

Zunka Bhakri is traditionally made with chickpeas or besan paste which is further cooked with onions, curry leaves, ginger-garlic paste, cumin and mustard seeds. Rich and aromatic, best served with bajra or jowar rotis

Thalipeeth

Thalipeeth is one of the most protein-rich foods of Maharashtra people. It is multigrain bread prepared by rice, wheat, bajra, jowar, chana, urad, etc. Apart from that coriander seeds, cumin seeds, green vegetables are also used. It is one of the tastiest traditional food of Maharashtra.
