

Women's Day Event Report

SWE COEP affiliate organized a special event on International Women's Day, i.e 8th March 2022. The event was held under Azaadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav Initiative. The chief guest of the event was Ms. Priya Marathe, an actress and theater artist.

Details of event:

The event started with the felicitation of Ms. Priya Marathe by the Deputy Director of COEP. We paid an homage to Lata Mangeshkar, Birju Maharaj, Sindhutai Sapkal, General Bipin Rawat and Ramesh Deo. This was followed by COEP Geet. After this, Dr. Mrs. Vaishali Ingale, faculty advisor of SWE COEP, gave a speech on women empowerment and equality. She explained the working of SWE and its mission and values.

This was followed by a speech from Dean Students Affairs, Dr. Dhamangaokar, who spoke on the importance of Women's Day in the present world. Following this, Deputy Director COEP, Prof. Sutaone spoke about women equality in art and the modern world. This was followed by felicitation of female achievers of COEP. After this, the chief guest, Ms. Priya Marathe, spoke on her experiences in her career.

Ms. Priya Marathe also answered questions from our live audience. She was asked about her favorite medium to work in, her favorite marathi actress, and the changes she has seen in herself while working in the industry. Her answer to these questions was that she loved theater, and her patience as well as positivity had grown while working in the industry. She also urged everyone to follow their dreams and work towards their passion. This was followed by a vote of thanks and the national anthem.

Felicitations of Girl achievers

On the occasion of Women's Day, we felicitated 5 female achievers of COEP. The achievers hailed from sports, academics and extra curricular background with extraordinary achievements in their field. They were felicitated with a book and sapling.

The girls included:

1. Anjali nair:

- a. Won first place in COEP's Idea Competition'21 and first place in COEP's Business Plan Competition'21.
 - b. Won Best Female Actor in a Pune theater group's acting competition, and has represented COEP in several theater acting contests.
 - c. Headed Public Relations in BHAU's Innovation and Entrepreneurship Cell.
 - d. Held the position of Ambassador of Implementation of National Innovation & Startup Policy, COEP and is a member of our college's Institute Innovation Council.
2. Gargee Nimdeo
- a. Received Youth Icon Award at the hands of union minister with a cash prize of 50000 INR
 - b. Best supporting female award in state level drama competitions
 - c. Co-founder of It's been Soy! A startup initiative
 - d. Active participant of boat club activities
3. Payal Badgujar
- a. Runner up in LAKSHA
 - b. Won in State level badminton championship organized by government college aurangabad
4. Aayushi Bhand
- a. Silver medals in Pune University Inter-collegiate matches in long and triple jump
 - b. Won silver in Pune University Inter zonals
 - c. She had won Silver medal in long jump and Silver medal in 4*100m relay
5. Tanvi Lad
- a. Got poem published in 2 books called Wings of Poetry and Illusions of separation.
 - b. Won silver medal for our college (COEP) in zonal level Table Tennis Competition