Description of Activity: Due to the pandemic situation the Ek Bharat Shreshtha Bharat (EBSB) committee have celebrated an online event of Aarambh – an event of festivals on account of Makar Sankranti and Kalinga Mahotsav.

The program began with Sarswati Vandana and Lamp Lightening.

Our calendar new year 2022 started with several interesting festivals.

Aarambh event of EBSB, was organized by the students of Jeypore college of Pharmacy, Odisha and IPA, MSB's Bombay College of Pharmacy, Maharashtra in the month on 22nd January, 2022. January is a month of festivals, hence it was celebrated as Aarambh event by performing highlights of Kalinga Mahotsav and Makar Sankranti festival. Kalinga Mahotsav or National festival of Martial Dance was celebrated to mark the major victory of peace over war once witnessed a battle during the reign of Ashoka. This festival is celebrated to tribute Martyrs of the Maurya Dynasty, is celebrated in various martial art acts through dance and music. Whereas Makarsankranti or Uttarayan or Maghi or simply Sankranti, also known in West Bengal as Mokor Sonkranti. 'Sankranti' here means 'transfer', this day is considered as the transition day of Sun into Capricorn.

The Guest of Honor for the program was Mr. Sujit Kumar Martha Sir from Jeypore College of Pharmacy, Odisha. The program started with introduction of Ek Bharat Shrestha Bharat committee and chief guest by our enthusiastic coordinator Dr. Premlata Ambre followed by the speeches of respected Dr. N. Sivaprasad, President of IPA, MSB's Bombay College of Pharmacy. After that the speech was given by guest of honor Mr. Sujit Kumar Martha Sir on the occasion of Aarambh event.

Aarambh event celebration was done by organizing different intercollege activities for students like Sticker Making Competition & Caption It. In this competition students prepared several amazing stickers on festivals of Odisha and Maharashtra. This competition was organized by students which was the combination of great creativity, novel ideas and beautiful stickers of national festivals. Students from Odisha presented the mesmerizing dances and singing performances, that helped Mumbai students to understand the importance of culture and national festivals of two different states. Sambalpuri Dance was performed by the students of Odisha. The program was concluded by announcing the names of Winners.

The winners of this competition were as follows:

Winners of Sticker Making: 1st: Manotosh Padhi (Jeypore College of pharmacy, Jeypore, Odisha), 2nd: Alibha Senapati (Jeypore College of pharmacy, Jeypore, Odisha), 3rd: Chinmoyi Chakravarty (Jeypore College of pharmacy, Jeypore, Odisha) & Siddhi Nakashe(BCP).

Winners of Caption It: 1st Chirag Gala (BCP), 2nd Sachin Jethawa(BCP), 3rd Avinash Wagh (BCP).

The program was really cheerful with the feeling of unity and heritage in everyone's heart on the occasion of Aarambh event. Finally, the program was ended up with short message on unity in diversity and vote of thanks by Dr. Galvina Pereira mam.

Naba Kalebera

Nabakalebera is the ritualistic recreation of the wooden icons of four Hindu deities, Jagannath, Balabhadra, Subhadra, and Sudarshana at Jagannath Temple, Puri.

It marks the symbolic demise and rebirth of Jagannath at Puri.

The event involves installation of new images in the Jagannath temple and burial of the old ones in the temple premises at Koli Baikuntha.

Jagannath Puri Rath Yatra

Rath Yatra or Jatra: celebration of the Lord Jagannath believed to be the Lord of Universe's journey towards his aunt's house.

Jagannath's annual visit to: Gundicha Temple via Mausli Maa Temple near Saradha Bali, Puri.

The presiding deities of the Jagannath Temple, Puri's main temple, Lord Jagannath, Lord Balabhadra and Goddess Subhadra; are removed from the temple in a ceremonial procession to their chariots.

On their way back; the three deities halt and have an offering of the Poda Pitha.

After a stay for seven days; the deities return to their abode.
