Inauguration of EBSB Club

To encourage cultural adoption, all the States/UTs in India have been paired accordingly. The paired States/UTs have signed MoUs with each other, delineating a set of activities that they would carry out throughout the year. An activity calendar for each pair had been prepared through mutual consultation, paving the way for a yearlong process of mutual engagement. Such interactions between different segments of the population of each pair of States/UTs at the cultural level will generate a spirit of understanding and appreciation amongst the people and forge mutual bonding, thus securing an enriched value system of unity in the nation.

Telangana's CVR College of Engineering, Hyderabad has been paired with Haryana's Deenbandhu Chhotu Ram University of Science and Technology, Murthal, Sonapat.

The Executive Body is commissioned to recognize few days in a month to hold events/programmes adhering to themes of EBSB, promoting the objectives of EBSB campaign, focus being on paired states.

The students of our institution were introduced to the club for the first time. To celebrate the occasion, the faculty and students organized the programme. While some sang a few Haryanvi songs, others performed on the state's popular tunes. The first song was 'Is andi mahra Haryana', performed wearing the state's traditional garb, the girls wore Daman and Kurti, bejeweled in classic headpieces like Borla, waist chains called Tagdi and other accessories made of silver. While the boys were found wearing Dhoti-Kurta, with their heads covered in Khandva turbans and Jutti as footwear. The song celebrates Haryana's ethnicity and its clothing along the words 'Jab kund tokri udta daaman, ghungat mein sharmana, Is andi mahara Haryana'. The performance was well appreciated by the chief guest, the Head of the departments, the teachers and students.

The next song 'Gajban paani ne chali' was a Haryanvi song which blended culture with modern pop, became such a hit the entire audience tapped to the songs electric beats. The event concluded on a jovial note with promises of much more in the coming days.
