EBSB, Unnat Bharath Abhiyan & NSS Unit of GSSSIETW, Mysuru jointly organized an awareness program to villagers on “Solid waste management in current scenario” at Naganahalli Village on 17th September 2019 in association with Naganahalli Village Panchayath, Mysuru Taluk.

Dr. Sakala, Associate Professor, Department of Environmental Engineering, BMSIT, Bengaluru & Advisor, KSPCB, Bengaluru was the Guest speaker. In her speech, she emphasized the importance of solid waste collection and scientific disposal methods employed for the protection of the environment and health of the population. Solid or liquid waste if it is not processed properly before disposing, that will cause air and water pollution. Rotting garbage will produce harmful gases that mix with the air and leads to breathing problems. Scientific waste treatment will save earth for our future generations. Followed by this she spoke about the relevant measures that has to be taken in order to minimize and to manage solid waste. There was an interaction program with villagers about solid waste collection and management in current scenario. After the talk students went around the village interacted with villagers about the solid waste management system.

Smt. K Dharani, President, Naganahalli village panchayath, Sri C D Ramadas, Panchayath Development Officer, Naganahalli village Panchayath, Smt. Kalavathi, Secretary, Village Panchayath, Naganahalli, Smt.Sannamma & Smt.Vanajakshi village panchayath members were present on the occasion. Sheshadri S N & Chethan K S, EBSB, NSS & UBA coordinators, GSSSIETW, Mysuru. Naganahalli Villagers and 55 NSS volunteers of GSSSIETW were actively participated in the event.
