About the Event –

On the occasion of Marathi Rajbhasha Diwas, an elocution contest was organized, in the remembrance of the birth anniversary of noted Marathi litterateur V.V Shirwadkar alias 'Kusumagraj. Kusumagraj, born on 27 February 1912, who was an eminent Marathi poet, playwright, novelist, short story writer and humanist. In his writings, he wrote about freedom, justice and emancipation of the deprived. The government started celebrating the birth anniversary of Kusumagraj as Marathi Rajbhasha Gaurav Din after the Dnyanpith awardees demise in 1999.

We at JIMS understand language is the root map of our culture and we have to make an effort to preserve our root languages, thus to eradicate the language barrier this day is celebrated. We take pride in the language of the state.

Accordingly an elocution contest was organised by the institute for all the students. The notice regarding the same was circulated well in advance amongst the students. The participants were given the liberty to choose the topic as per their liking. The time limit allowed for delivering the speech was 5 to 10 minutes. The language of delivery was compulsorily Marathi.

Accordingly four (4) students participated in the contest, with following topics

1. Ms. Nikita Jadhav - □□□□□ □□□□
2. Mr. Akash Khochare - □□□□□□□□ □□□□□□ □□□□□□
3. Mr. Shubham Waghmare - □□□□□□ □□□□□ □□□□□
4. Ms. Rohini Sangokar - □□□□ □□□□□□

The contestants were judged by the judges on the following parameters :

- Content (10 Marks)
- Presentation of the subject (10 Marks)
- Voice Modulation (10 Marks)
- Body Language and Gestures (10 Marks)
- Time Management (10 Marks)

All the participants were equally energetic in their respective speeches. The large number of students and faculty members, present in the Seminar Hall, applauded them all for their wonderful performances.

The judges Dr. Sudarshan Pawar and Prof. Shweta Padale, after thorough evaluation came to the final decision and declared the names of Winner and Runner-up.

The event was coordinated by Prof. Mangesh Javkhedkar and Prof. Sanjay Dandele and Mr. Kiran Mahajan (Student Coordinator).

Mr. Mahajan proposed the vote of thanks.

The program concluded with recital of National Anthem.
