

ISLAMIC UNIVERSITY OF SCIENCE & TECHNOLOGY AWANTIPORA, KASHMIR.

Office of the Dean of Students

The 21st February was declared to be the International Mother Language Day by UNESCO in 1999. It has been observed throughout the world since 21st of February, 2020. UNESCO believes in the importance of cultural and linguistic diversity for sustainable societies. It is within its mandate for peace that it works to preserve the differences in cultures and languages that foster tolerance and respect for others.

In this context, the TEQUIP – III in collaboration with Nodal Officer of EBSB program has carry out the same program in its Matra Basha (Kashmiri Language) in the University campus in which a very large number of students of the University had participated and shown a very keen interest in developing the same to a vast and diversified language to its fullest.
