OVERVIEW

On 7th December, 2019 at 11:00 in Conference Room of IIITG students, members of teaching staff and office staff assembled to participate in institute's first Ek Bharat Shreshtha Bharat Club Day. Despite winter vacation in institute few students came to participate in EBSB Club day.

The EBSB Club day was presided by Dr. Suranjana Barua, Nodal Officer, EBSB. Dr. L David Lal, Coordinator, EBSB Club, Dr. Kukil Khanikar, Activity Coordinator, EBSB were present along with other faculties and students. EBSB Club was introduced to IIITG fraternity for the first time. The objectives of Ek Bharat Shreshtha Bharat were specified to the community. Moreover, activities conducted so far were also discussed.

The following agendas were prepared in EBSB Club day:

As Assam is paired with Rajasthan and IIITG is paired with IIIT Kota therefore discussions were centred around the nature of activities that could be conducted in the following months. Accordingly a ten point programme was prepared.

1. Identification of students from IIITG for EBSB exchange programme with IIIT Kota. Moreover, members discussed the logistics as well.
2. Hosting students from IIIT Kota in IIITG and showcasing Assamese culture to students from IIIT Kota.
3. Highlighting Geographic landscape of Rajasthan to IIITG student.
4. Lecture on evolution of Rajasthan as a princely state and its History.
5. To celebrate Rajasthan Cuisine Day in IIITG.
6. Organising Rajasthani Musical evening in IIITG and showcasing musical instruments of Rajasthan such as Ravanahatha.
7. To conduct Rajasthani Dress material and Jewelry exhibition in IIITG.
8. IIITG will also organise traditional Rajasthani Dance like Ghoomar, Kalbeliya, Bhavai Dance, Chari Dance.
9. Screening of documentaries on Rajasthan culture, folk music, history, language and society.
10. Introducing Rajasthani literature to IIITG community.
