Nrityanjali Workshop

Date: 14.02.2020

Time: 06:00PM to 08:00PM

Participants: Students & Faculty of IITH (550)

IIT Hyderabad's EBSB club organized Nrityanjali, a classical dance workshop, on 14th February, 2020. The event was attended by trained dancers from all over the country. The participating dancers performed in various dance styles including Bharatanatyam, Kuchipudi. The audience consisted of many students of IITH. The event was judged by Dr. Tejaswini Manogna, a classically trained dancer herself.

By seeing the performance of the dancer's, students at IITH were highly impressed and they enjoyed a lot, everyone in the hall cheered the dancers with claps and encouraged participants. IITH students pleased to see Bharatanatyam, Kuchipudi dance performance.

In the end participants shared their experiences and struggle to become a dancer. It was an interesting speech and students at IITH got inspired to learn classical dance.

After all of the breathtaking performances, three of the dancers were declared as winners. Prof. B. S. Murty, Director IITH congratulated all the winners and appreciated the performances of contestants and also encouraged them to participate more in such competitions to enhance and grow their talent.
