

Kaleidoscope 2019 – A Plethora of Art

Fine Arts and Photography society organized the “Annual Art and Photography Exhibition- Kaleidoscope 2019” held on 7th of November 2019 of all the best works of the most creative minds of TIET. The arts and photographs represented particular themes and added up to the tagline “A Plethora of Art”. All the faculty and students from TIET visited the event, rejuvenating Art and Culture in their own unique ways. Along with the display, there were photo booths and props set up around the place for the students to explore and embrace their moments friendship and togetherness. Overall, the event was a success and the mission kaleidoscope set out to achieve that is inspiring young minds to create was accomplished.
