

POSTER MAKING COMPETITION
REPORT
EBSB -APRIL

“When you find yourself cocooned in isolation and cannot find your way out of darkness, remember that this is similar to the place where caterpillars go to grow their wings.”, this was truly proved by the students at BCIHMCT , by beautifully portraying their creative skills through the online poster making competition on the themed on women empowerment embracing the month of Women’s Day

Inspired from New Age Women in Responsible Tourism webinar streamed live on Apr 29, 2020 , this poster making competition was a creative way to thank all the amazing women at homes during the lockdown period to ensure warmth of food , health of all the family members and houses full of beautiful sounds and colours as truly said by Ms. Rupendra Brar , ADG Enthusiastic participation was observed by the children of the even semesters to portray their artistic skills on a paper through the colour pallets. This was judged by faculty member – Ms. Nausheen Siddiqui and Ms. Gagandeep Soni.

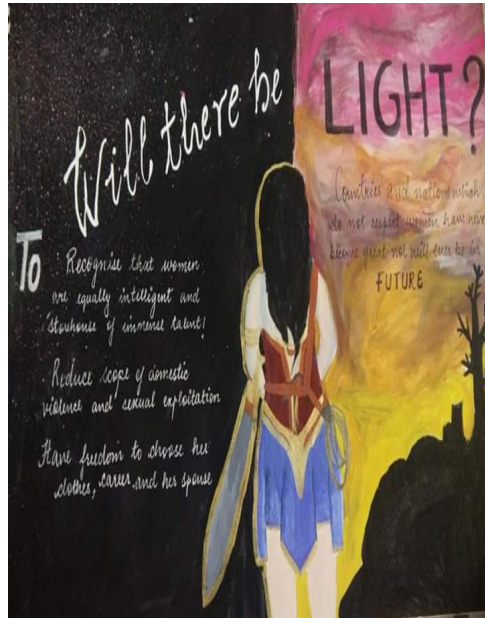

While the webinar discussed about the Various inspirational and highly talented women around the country in states of Ladakh , NCR , Nagaland, MP, Uttarakhand, Wayanad , Bengal, and Andamans , the students of BCIHMCT along with poster making came out with some inspirational stories of women from State of Sikkim. 3 of them included –

1. Karma Sonam Bhutia who runs Kuzu through which she is trying to revive the natural fibres exclusively available in Sikkim
2. Smita Rai who picked up candle-making as a hobby and now has over 50 women from her village
3. The first female IPS from the North East (Sikkim), 28 year old Aparajita is an inspiration for many in the region
