

Apart from developing our institution the IQAC also want to develop the society. To meet out A.P.J Abdul kalam's vision of village adoption, IQAC adopted a village and it was also implemented by signing a MOU with the Digitall- foundation of Tamilnadu Chamber of Commerce. Kulamangalam village was adopted under this scheme On 15.10.2019.

The inaugural session for the village adoption scheme was organized on 10th january 2020 with the help of Home Science Department. The Dietetics day has been organized in the village. An awareness programme n the health has been given to the public. 24.1.20 Department of Computer application organized awareness program on digital transformation, 29th January 2020 Department of Botany organized food preservation methodologies, February 4th 2020 department geography organized environmental awareness programme, February 8 th 2020 department of zoology organized general medical camp, February 12th chemistry department organized making of soap and phenyl training, February 15th 2020 department of computer science organized mobile apps training program and 18th February department of economics organized consumer awareness programme. All the departments of our college conducted many programmes in the kulamangalam village for the development.