

Youth Culture exchange Programme “Young Tarang” Association with TANA

KL University in association with Telugu Association of North America (TANA) has organized Youth Culture exchange programme “Young Tarang” for the students in KLEF, Competitions was organized in literary and cultural events like Mock parliament, Telugu poems competition, Quiz, Traditional fashion show for Mr.Andhra, Miss Andhra. As Chief – Guests Jay Taluri –Tana President, Sirisha Tunuguntla – Tana women Coordinator the event success. KLEF students have participated in the cultural events to focus the tradition and culture of our state.

The poster for the 'Young Tarang 2020' event features a central graphic of two silhouettes dancing against a colorful, splattered background. At the top, the logos for KL University Alumni Association and the Telugu Association of North America (TANA) are displayed, along with the event title in Telugu and English. Below the central graphic, several guest artists are listed with their photos and titles: Chandrabose (Indian lyricist), Raghu Master (Indian Film Choreographer), Mimiry Ramesh (Mimicry Artist), Anudeep (Singer), Ravali (Anchor), Jay Talluri (TANA President), Koneru Satyanarayana (President of KLU), and Sirisha Tunuguntla (TANA Womens Coordinator). The event details are provided at the bottom: Date: Feb 4th 2020, Time: 4pm to 8 pm, Venue: R n D Auditorium, KL University. A blue banner at the bottom of the poster reads 'BEST COMPLIMENTS FROM "TANA" TEAM' and 'TANA in association with KLU Inviting you all to join for this Event'. The bottom of the poster is decorated with a silhouette of a crowd with their hands raised.

