

Report on Awareness Programme On Laws for Women Protection

A seminar was conducted on behalf of Women Cell on 20.12.2019. The topic of the seminar was, "Laws for Women Protection".

The Chief Guest for the programme was Protection Officer of Social Welfare department, Mrs. Andal. She gave a dynamic address and emphasized about the importance of creating a better society. The inspiring words met with a great applause.

Guest of honour, Sub Inspector of Police Mrs. Jayasheeli spoke about the various incidents that happened to women in the past and alerted the students on many important issues related to female students.

She also explained the importance of the different Laws for Women Protection, women upliftment, the challenges faced and overcome by numerous real-life situations and illustrations. Her efforts were highly commended. She also answered all the students' queries gracefully and factually.

Mrs. Mullai, Principal Incharge was the pillar of the programme. She spoke that in the present scenario, women have to be empowered, by educating them on their rights and legal provisions available for their protection.

Women Cell Co-Ordinator, Mrs. Umamaheswari, Assistant Professor, department of Zoology gave a warm welcome to the distinguished guests and addressed the students in the welcome address.

Mrs. Suyambu Thangam, the member of Women Cell proposed the vote of thanks. The Seminar was enriched by the support and presence of Professors of various departments, women cell members from the students community along with a gathering of 500 students.

At the end of the day not only were the students legally empowered but were filled with faith and hope to reach out to more people.

