“Education is the passport to the future, for tomorrow belongs to those who prepare for it today. Our Chief Guest, Thiru. P.Kalimuthu Who gave a special address for our new graduates, for success their life. At the outset, I would like to congratulate all the graduating officers for the successful completion of the course. This convocation is a significant milestone in your academic growth. The degrees and awards earned by all of you are a result of your relentless hard work and immense dedication. This is a proud moment for all of you, as much as it is for your instructors, guides, faculty members and parents.. Learning is a never ending process and the firm foundation provided to you by your alma mater will empower you to explore new horizons.

Speech of the Chief Guest Thiru A. Jaison

Gentlemen, while the successful completion of your course is a matter of pride and joy, it is just a stepping stone to the challenges that lie ahead of you in the future. I know how satisfying it is for a teacher to give students the joy of learning; to make them appreciate, reflect and differentiate the strands of thinking; to make them worthy and willing to shoulder responsibility. The faculty is the lifeblood of a college. They must act as friend and guide to the students, ever willing to counsel and show them how best they can gear themselves to face the world.

Let us together bring the changes required to make our present higher education system shine brightly once again. I wish you all success for your bright future.

Finally, vote of thanks was given and the function was ended by National anthem.
