

A REPORT ON PROFESSIONAL ETHICS PROGRAM

DATE-18/12/2019

A programme on Professional ethics was conducted on 18-12-2019 in our college premises. Dr. T.V.Sudharsan, Head of the Department of Mathematics, welcomed the gathering. Dr.S.Bala, Assistant professor in Mathmatics, SIVET College, Gowrivakkam, Chennai - 600073 was the Resource person. Dr.S.Bala spoke about the nature of Human Values and stated that human values are universal in nature.

She highlighted the importance of human values and culture. She explained in detail about the implantation of human values which begins with childhood of human being. She also dealt with how putting human values into practice leads to bringing prosperity and peace. Dr.S.Bala also mentioned some of the prominent human values which can be categorized as Genuine,modesty,self-respect, civility,rationality,incorrupt,wisdom ,charity. Finally the emergence of Human values was discussed with examples.The program was very well received by students and they were deeply engrossed in the program. The resource person made the program very interesting by interacting with both girls and boys. The program was attended by our department faculty and about 150 students from the department of Mathematics . The speaker Dr.Dr.S.Bala also was very much appreciative of our students.

The program came to an end with Vote of Thanks by Dr.K.Thirusangu, Dean Research and Associate professor in Mathematics,SIVET College,Gowrivakkam,Chennai- 600 073.

