

ETHIRAJ COLLEGE FOR WOMEN (AUTONOMOUS)

CHENNAI – 600 008.

Srishti, the annual inter-collegiate cultural fest, was held on the 3rd and 4th of February, 2020. The theme for this year was “Azure”, Zeal for Celebration. Like the clear sky which allows an array of light to brighten lives, Srishti offers a wonderful opportunity for young minds to showcase their talents and gain recognition. According to Chinese mythology, Azure is also the dragon of the spring season which is the most active and blissful season. The Chinese art is generally influenced by the country’s rich spiritual and mystical history. The stage was set for students from diverse backgrounds to hone their skill and exhibit their talents. The chief guests for the inaugural were Director Dhana, Actors, Vikram Prabu, Shanthanu Bagyaraj and Amitash Pradhan. Srishti 2020 witnessed an array of various events like dance, music, variety, etc. D.G Vaishnav College were the overall winners and the runners up were Loyola College.
