

Department of Zoology

Name of the event: State Level Seminar cum Workshop on W for Water (Resources, Crisis, Conservation and Sustainability)

Event Date: 4th February, 2020

No. of Resource Persons: Four

Report Description:

The Seminar mainly focused to make awareness on the importance of water and its conservation. Dr.T.Kumaran, Head, Department of Zoology has given the welcome address and he emphasize the importance of ground water and its significance. Dr.A.Geetha, Principal had delivered presidential address and she explained the need of water resources and its importance. Dr.N.Thirunavukkarasu, Convener of the Seminar has highlighted knowledge of drinking water and issues of water scarcity. Dr.R.Saravanan, Co-Convener has given the vote of thanks.

Mr. Arun Krishnamurthy, Founder, Environmentalist Foundation of India delivered inaugural address and he covered the topic on "Need for Science based solutions to combat climate change". Dr.K.Sridhar, Hydrogeologist, Tamilnadu Water Supply and Drainage Board (TWAD), Chennai has delivered the topic on "Sustainability of Ground water Resources". Mr.A.Sivakumar, Country Manager - India, Environmental and Geospatial Solution, Chennai has given lecture on "Hydrocarbon Contamination in soil and Groundwater - An Overview". Dr.B.Gowtham, Head, Department of Geology, Presidency College, Chennai has taken topic on "Demarcation of Recharge areas through Integrated Approach".

Faculty members, Research Scholars and students from various institutions were attended the event. Participants were actively deliberated with resource persons and knowledge on water conservation were disseminated.

No. of Participants:110

Report Title: State Level Seminar cum Workshop on W for Water (Resources, Crisis, Conservation and Sustainability)