

A completion on instantaneous translation of given topic from telugu to hindi,English or any other languages known to students. Totally 24 students participated in this competition. Students have translated topics from telugu to hindi,English,khatri,Marathi(only one student),Sanskrit(only one student) and from other language to telugu very well. Language teachers were resource persons for this event.

A positive feed back received both from teachers and students, they opined that this type of programmes will increase multi language communication skills and cognitive skills.

A student of B.Sc taking part in the competition.