

GOVERNMENT ARTS COLLEGE FOR WOMEN, SALEM – 8

DEPARTMENT OF BOTANY

ONE DAY WORKSHOP ON SERICULTURE

The department of Botany in association with Regional Sericulture Research Station conducted an “One day workshop on Sericulture”. The workshop focused on exhibiting the different stages of silkworm development, different species their feeds and silk thread. The importance of sericulture, the importance of sericulture ,rules and methods adhering to mulberry plant cultivation, silkworm rearing, silk thread processing techniques, entrepreneurial opportunities and government subsidies were discussed. More than 65 famers 150 students and staff members participated in the workshops.